LOYALISTS' LINES BREAK

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, Jan. 5.—(UP)—The armies of Rebel Gen. Francisco Franco reported today they had smashed both ends of the Loyalist Catalan defense line and were advancing "on all sectors" after occupation of the strategic highway town of Borja Blanca.

Dispatches from the Loyalist front admitted some gains by the insurgents after fierce fighting. They said the Rebels lost 2000 men on the Borja Blanca front alone but later brought up new Italian reinforcements, additional airplanes and artillery,
as well as 60 tanks, in order to advance their lines "slightly."

Heavy Losses
Loyalist dispatches said that the insurgents had been repulsed with heavy losses in the Pobla de Granadella and Cubells sectors.

Announcements made at Franco's headquarters said Loyalists were firing villages along the front and were forcing civilians
to evacuate as they withdrew.
Fighting in intense cold the Nationalist troops reported that fast cavalry and tank units had encircled and captured Borja Blanca on the important Lerida-Tarragona highway on the southern front.

The seizure of Borja Blanca would mean that Franco had achieved the first main objectives after 14 days of fierce fighting in the offensive which began just before Christmas.

FASCIST HEADS NEW CABINET IN JAPAN

TOKYO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Baron Kichiro Hiranuma, 73-year-old bachelor and founder of the right wing extremist National Foundation Party, assumed leadership of a reorganized cabinet today.

Hiranuma is regarded generally as representing the Fascist element and the extreme nationalist element in the fighting forces.

Nevertheless, it was asserted
he completed his cabinet today,
that he would continue the policies of the preceding government toward China and would pursue an even more moderate policy domestically.

Minister Remains
In reorganizing the cabinet, Hiranuma persuaded Prince Fumimaro Konoye, whom he succeeded as premier, to remain as

Farmers Seize Federal Water

VIRDEN, N. M., Jan. 5.—(UP)— Jubilant farmers irrigated their dusty fields today with water seized from the government.

State engineers, on order of
Gov. John Miles, cut the chains to locked headgates of the Gila river yesterday after displacing
Federal Water Commissioner
C. A. Firth. He submitted to the authority of the engineers in the general store of this cross-roads town near the southwestern corner of the state.

Firth was expected to report
to Federal District Judge Albert
M. Sames in Tucson today or tomorrow, and seek an injunction to block the water diversion. Under court order issued three years ago, a federal water master apportioned Gila headwaters to conserve the supply for San Carlos Indians on their reservation 70 miles west of Virden.

Press Time Bulletins

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—John Beardsley, Los Angeles attorney, today was named by Gov. Culbert L. Olson as superior court judge in Los Angeles, replacing Senator Robert Kenny, who resigned to take his seat in the legislature.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Conservative Democrats and Republicans prepared today for a fight on a wide front against the foreign and domestic programs President Roosevelt outlined in his state of the union address to congress yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Comptroller of the Currency Preston Delano today issued a call for condition of national banks as of Dec. 31.

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Recuperating from a "slight" cold, Gen. John J. Pershing received his first visitors in more than three weeks today at his desert cottage. The World War commander was presented with a 50-year membership button in the Masonic order by Henry H. Wilson, past grand master, of Lincoln, Neb.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Superior Judge Mark Lee Megladdery Jr., facing an official inquiry into charges that while secretary of former Governor Frank Merriam he accepted $500 in connection with a pardon for a convicted murderer, failed to make a scheduled appearance at the Alameda county courthouse again today.

Frankfurter Named To Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Prof. Felix Frankfurter of Harvard University to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Nomination of the 56-year-old Jewish scholar of the Harvard law school for a vacancy which has existed on the high court since death of Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo last July 9.

Proposal that Frankfurter be named to succeed the brilliant Jewish justice, Cardozo, had been voiced in many quarters.

Third Named
Frankfurter is the third jurist
to be appointed to the high bench
by Mr. Roosevelt. His other appointees were Justices Hugo L.
Black, and Stanley F. Reed.

Announcement of the selection of Frankfurter was made through White House Secretary Stephen
T. Early, who gave a one paragraph typewritten statement to newspapermen gathered in the White House press room.

FDR Adviser
Frankfurter, an old friend of the President, has been his adviser off and on since the 1932 campaign.
He frequently visited the White House and for the past several years his name has persistently cropped up as a likely nominee
for the bench.

PLAN CELEBRATION, VICTORY PARADE IN S. F. FOR MOONEY

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Thomas
J. Mooney submitted docilely today to the twistings and turnings demanded by a tailor outfitting him for a series of "victory" celebrations which may become international in scope.

A new "going out" suit replacing his drab prison garb, Mooney,
now 56, will leave here Saturday
for a brief pardon hearing at Sacramento which will give him his release after 22 years in prison.
There was little—if any—possibility that any last minute development would change Governor Culbert L. Olson's intention to give Mooney the freedom taken from him when convicted in 1916
of the San Francisco Preparedness Day bombing.

No Opposition
With no opposition in sight, it was expected Mooney would be a free man again by noon and ready to take part in celebrations in his honor planned by labor and liberal forces which led the long fight in his behalf, on the contention he was "framed" in an anti-labor plot.

From London came an invitation for Mooney to visit that country as guest of the Independent Labor party. Officials of the Mooney defense committee said

County Chemist Takes Own Life

Believed to have used a poison,
the effects of which he was acquainted, Paul Lamont Yeager, 33-year-old chemist at the Orange County hospital, shortly before noon today committed suicide in his home, 324 East Wilhelmina street, Anaheim, according to investigation of Coroner Earl Abbey and Anaheim police authorities.

Returning home from a shopping tour with Mrs. Yeager, Yeager, three or four minutes later reportedly told her he had just taken "something." Medical authorities will determine what he took. As Mrs. Yeager saw Yeager slump in a chair, she called Police Chief James S.
Bouldin. He and Fireman John Seanger worked over Yeager for 30 minutes with a resuscitator but without success. According to reports Yeager had been dependent for three days. He left no notes.

years of service. He is given credit for establishing before the U.

Quints Slighted By King, Queen

CALLANDER, Ont., Jan. 5.—
(UP)—Dr. Allan Ray Dafeo believes French Canadians will deeply resent the failure to include a visit to the Dionne quintuplets here in the itinerary of King George and Queen Elizabeth for their Canadian tour next summer. The babies are wards of the king.

"Personally, I don't care," Dafeo said, "but the dominion government is not showing much courtesy to the French in Canada."

Dr. Dafeo said he was surprised their majesties had not been consulted about visiting the quintuplets. He blamed the government at Ottawa.

HUGE RELIEF FUND SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—
President Roosevelt today asked congress for an immediate $875-000,000 appropriation to provide WPA jobs for between 3,000,000
and 3,700,000 persons until June 30, the end of the 1939 fiscal year.

He asked for these funds in a special relief message, while in his regular budget message, also submitted today, he projected a relief and recovery program of $2,266,165,000 for the new fiscal year beginning in July.

Hits Politics
Taking cognizance of growing congressional criticism of administration of the Works Progress Administration, he called for statutory restrictions against improper political practices in relief, but he pleaded against return of relief administration to local authorities and against imposition of restriction that might infringe upon political rights of relief recipients.

"No one wishes more sincerely than I do that the program for assisting unemployed workers shall be completely free from political manipulation," Mr. Roosevelt said in his special message.
"However, anyone who proposes that this result can be achieved

DEFENSE SUSTAINED IN FRUIT ASSN. CASE

Defense demurrers were sustained today by Superior Judge
G. K. Scovel in the suit for an accounting brought by Julius Milbratt, sr., of the Anaheim Community Growers, against the former manager, Edward Mills, and the former board of directors,
the court ruling that Milbratt
has not yet exhausted other legal remedies for alleged wrongs of the growers at the hands of their executives.

Special demurrers filed on behalf of former Directors Perry Mathis, James Meehan, Sam
Winters and R. C. Hein, questioned Milbratt's claims of a $150,000 shortage in association funds, also his contention that the directors had made private loans to themselves and others.
They further argued that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to warrant an accounting.

Mills filed a general demurrer through Attorneys Kaufman and Anderson. Former Director
George Easton demurred through Attorneys Forgy, Reinhaus and Forgy. Former Director J. T.
Lyon has not yet been represented in the case.

Judge Scovel ruled that California decisions uphold the federal rule in stockholder liability suits that a stockholder may not appeal to the courts until his demands have been rejected by the board of directors and he has then appealed to other stockholders for aid. Milbratt's complaint failed to show that he had sought these other remedies
before filing suit, said the court.
Attorney Arthur Jones, representing Milbratt, was granted ten days in which to amend his complaint.

Hickey Named To Head Tax Group

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—
State Controller Harry B. Riley announced today appointment of James W. Hickey, as chief of the inheritance tax division, succeeding W. H. H. Gentry, who retired
Jan. 1. Hickey joined the controller's staff 21 years ago and served as assistant inheritance tax chief for several years under Gentry.

Gentry, Riley said, was retired at the statutory age, after 22
years of service. He is given credit for establishing before the U.
S. supreme court the principle that a taxpayer has no right to interplead a state in a federal inheritance tax suit. Gentry was nationally recognized as an authority on inheritance tax law.

Judge Postpones Assault Trial

Superior Judge Franklin G.
West today postponed to Jan. 24
second trial of Will Officer, of Fullerton, charged with felonious assault upon his Santa Ana son-in-law, Bert Norris, whom he wounded with a shotgun following a quarrel at Fullerton, it is alleged.

Injury of a prosecution witness in a traffic accident caused the state today to request the postponement. A jury disagreed at Officer's first trial.

FDR PRESENTS NINE BILLION DOLLAR BUDGET TO CONGRESS

Rush State Relief Bill

(UP)—Relief checks for 70,000 California families will be interrupted next week unless a $19,600,000 deficiency relief bill—being rushed to completion today—is introduced, passed by the legislature and signed by Gov.
Culbert L. Olson by tomorrow.

Assemblyman Elmer E. Lore, North Hollywood Democrat, has charge of the proposed legislation under orders from Olson and
H. Dewey Anderson, state relief administrator. With Saturday a legislative holiday, Anderson stressed that the emergency action must be completed tomorrow and replenish relief funds which will be exhausted by Jan. 8.

Deluge of Bills
The appropriation, when approved, is expected to carry relief through the fiscal year ending June 30.

While a deluge of bills filled both houses, Olson pushed his inquiry into what a report on the Sacramento grand jury investigation of legislative corruption was not released. Olson said he wired former Gov. Frank F. Merriam, to whom the report was submitted, to either send him
a copy or tell where it was filed.

Before releasing the 186-page
controversial report, Olson said

SEEK KEY FIGURES IN PARDON SCANDAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—
(UP)—Two key figures in a state pardon scandal were missing today as authorities promised a "thorough investigation of every ramification" of the case.

Attorney General Earl Warren
asked police to aid in a search for Clarence Bent, San Francisco tavern keeper, and Clarence A.
Ledy, paroled Santa Clara county slayer.

Warren, who was told by Gov.
Culbert L. Olson to investigate and "take whatever action is justified," said Bent and Ledy could not be found by any of his operatives during a 24-hour search.

Shuns Questions
An agent of the attorney general also waited for Mark Lee Megladdery Jr., newly appointed Alameda county superior judge,
but reported Megladdery did not appear for what was to have been his opening day on the bench.

Megladdery later appeared at the office of Chief Deputy Attorney General Charles Wehr for a brief interview which terminated, Wehr said, when Megladdery refused to answer questions.

All three, Warren indicated,
were to be questioned on charges made by Joseph G. Stephens, member of the state board of prison terms and paroles, that Bent had paid $1250 in an effort to obtain a pardon for Ledy.

Ledy, sentenced for a slay-ing at his roadhouse, was paroled several months ago. As one of the last official acts of former Governor Frank Merriam his term was commuted to time served, freeing him of the necessity of having to report to parole officers.

The changes named Meglad-dery, Merriam's former secretary,
and Edwin Geary, Oakland attorney and former state boxing commissioner as being involved in the asserted transfer of the money.

HITLER EXPECTED TO ANSWER FDR'S ATTACK ON DICTATORS

BERLIN, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Nazi circles which are usually well informed reported today that Fuehrer Adolf Hitler might personally answer President Roosevelt's challenge to the dictators.

While the controlled press fired criticism at Mr. Roosevelt's address to Congress as destructive to international peace, reliable political sources speculated on suggestions that Hitler would strike back for Nazi Germany at the meeting of the Reichstag—representing greater Germany for the first time—on January 30.

Up to Hitler
It was understood that Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop discussed the Roosevelt speech with Hitler at Berchtesgaden today and that the attitude to be by Nazi officialdom and the press
would be decided by the Fuehrer.
Diplomatic and political sources appeared to be in agreement on the following conclusions regarding Mr. Roosevelt's address:
1.—The controlled Nazi press henceforth will put emphasis on its argument that there is a pronounced split between Mr. Roosevelt and the American people in their attitude toward the dictators.
2.—There is no indication at present of a formal break in diplomatic relations with Washington, although what the press terms "further provocation" by American statesmen might cause
a break.
3.—Any possibility that Hans Heinrich Dieckhoff, the recalled
German ambassador to Washington, will return within any definite time was removed by the speech.
The press attack on the United States was led by the foreign office mouthpiece, Diplomatische Politik Korrespondenz, which said the message to Congress was destructive of international peace which Hitler hopes to see established.

FDR ASKS TWO BILLIONS FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—President Roosevelt proposed to Congress today a $2,000,000,000 national defense program of military and semi-military projects 24 hours after threatening economic reprisals against aggressor nations.

The amount requested in the President's annual budget message to congress almost doubled
this year's record peace time appropriations for military and naval expenditures. Only in the World War years of 1917-19 has the proposed 1940 army and navy spending been exceeded.

Warning that "grave and unsettled developments" abroad have established a "real necessity" for vast expansion of the national defense system, Mr. Roosevelt urged immediately appropriation of $1,336,000,000 for strictly military and naval construction.

He said he later would ask for an additional $290,000,000 for military and naval contracts to be spent after June 30, 1940.
That sum would complete a $500-000,000 supplemental defense program beyond normal expenditures which he did not explain but was expected to in a special message to congress next week.

He also requested other appropriations amounting to approximately $350,000,000 for such semi-military projects as the military marine construction program, and rivers and harbors improvement.

Jail Four As Murder Suspects

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 5.—(UP)— Four men were in custody of the U. S. border patrol today for investigation in connection with the slaying of Thomas Ayon, 70, whose decomposed body was found on the desert north of here more than two months ago.

Earl Fallis, border patrolman
for the Tucson district, said all of the men arrested had confessed participation or connection with the slaying. He said robbery was the motive.

Patrol Inspector Allen J. Sigler was credited with solution of the case which culminated in the arrests. Sigler reported the four men, Ayon, and Arthur Fredericks, a prize fighter, had started for Mammoth, Ariz., August 25.
En route the four assertedly attacked and robbed the elderly man and the boxer who escaped by running across the desert. Ayon's body was found off the highway 10 miles from here November 2.

SHUNS PLEAS FOR ECONOMY

President Roosevelt bolstered his defiance of dictators today with a message to Congress proposing a $9,000,000,000 budget for 1940 to arm for defense and spend for recovery.

A Congressional economy bloc is actively hostile. But he rejected economy pleas of conservative New Dealers to cut government costs. He asked $422-000,000 in new taxes. He proposed a $2,000,000,000 military and semi-military defense program.

New Deficit
This annual budget message
sharply reminded Congress that Mr. Roosevelt had not "been throwing the taxpayers money out of the window."

He projected for next year the 10th successive year of federal deficit—$3,326,000,000 this time
—and the second highest spending program in New Deal history. The current year is tops at $9,492,000,000.

10-Year Cycle
The 10 year depression-recovery-depression cycle, beginning in the Hoover administration and projected through the next fiscal year, makes this kind of a record.

Total receipts, $41,033,000,000.
Total expenditures, $68,312-
000,000.
Aggregate net deficit, $27,279-
000,000.

National debt increase, $28-273,000,000.
Mr. Roosevelt said "well spent."

"Let us all fix that fact in our minds," he said, "so that there shall be no doubt about it and so that we may have a clear and intelligent idea of what we have been doing."

Got Real Value
"We have not been throwing the taxpayers' money out of the window or into the sea. We have been buying real values with it."

"Let me repeat: The greater part of the budgetary deficits that have been incurred have gone for permanent, tangible additions to our national wealth.
The balance has been an investment in the conservation of our human resources, and I do not regard a penny of it as wasted."
"It would be unwise either to curtail expenditures sharply or to impose drastic new states at this stage of recovery."

Debt Near Limit
The budget message pointed
the national debt close to $44-500,000,000 as of June 30, 1940,
which is but $500,000,000 short of the legal federal debt limit. It will be necessary at this session to ask Congress to increase that limit.

Mr. Roosevelt called for enactment of $1,000,000,000 in taxes of which $422,000,000 would be new revenue to pay for subsidies and emergency national defense
costs, and $500,000,000 to $600-000,000 a continuation of expiring manufacturer's excise taxes.

Mr. Roosevelt did not stipulate new revenue sources but it is understood to favor the inheritance or estate-tax type of levy to a processing tax or other im-
post which would reduce consuming power.

His other recommendations
were:

CHIEF TO ASK POLICE SHIFT

Believing more of his men should be shifted to the traffic division of Santa Ana police as a means of bringing greater safety to Santa Ana, Floyd W. Howard, chief of police, will ask city council soon for permission to transfer two or three of his men now working on criminal matters to the traffic squad.

The reason it is necessary to seek city council's approval is due to the difference in salaries paid patrolmen and motorcycle officers and the need to buy two or three more motorcycles, the chief said. Patrolmen of the department receive from $132 per month to a maximum of $148.50 while motorcycle officers receive $165.

Figures Back Request

Police Chief Howard had starting figures to back up his request for adding men to the traffic squad. Thirty-two men or the department are assigned to hunt down criminals, investigate thefts, burglaries, bad check cases, automobile thefts and bicycle thefts where seven are assigned to the motor patrol division.

In 1938, records show, the actual amount of property lost in Santa Ana through crime was valued at $3598 while the amount of loss through traffic deaths, accidents, etc., totaled $750,000. There were six traffic deaths last year and the chief believes adding two or three men to the motor patrol will aid in reducing such deaths in 1939.

Records show property lost through crime in 1937 was $58,880, with $41,637 recovered, and property lost in 1938, $36,969, with $33,370 recovered.

Rebels Smash Loyalist Lines

nounced that the class of 1922—men now 38 years old—and the first quarter of the class of 1942—now 18 years old—had been called to the colors to bolster the Loyalists' desperate defense of Catalonia.

The call for more men to stand off the insurgent offensive directed by Gen. Francisco Franco came after the Rebel armies had broken the outer defense lines in Catalonia by smashing both the north and south flanks to reach the Artesa communications center and the Lerida-Tarragona highway.

Previously, the government had called all able bodied men between those ages to serve in the front lines as the Rebels massed some 300,000 troops for their win the war" offensive against Barcelona.

The National Popular Front Committee at a special meeting voted to aid the government by calling up new recruits needed to defend the republic.

Gets Backing

Olson was backed by a resolution given unanimous passage in the senate, requesting Merriam to surrender the report to Warren. Senator Robert Kenny of Los Angeles earlier presented a resolution to publicize the report but admitted "it would be difficult to pass a resolution to publicize it, since probably a majority of the legislators are mentioned in it."

Many of the important assembly bills introduced relate to taxes, election laws and labor. One tax measure would extend the time limit on the 10-year installment payment of delinquent taxes and another called for changes in the sales tax setup. Among the proposals were provisions for extending the installment paying by one to two years from the date of expiration of the present law.

Sales tax legislation included limitation on demonstrator automobiles to the sales price rather than the original value of the car; prohibiting retailers from adding sales tax to the liquor excise tax included in liquor purchases; exempting restaurant meals and medicines from the sales tax; payment of the tax under the token system; and issuing of tokens in denominations of one to five mills each.

Measures affecting labor included: Abolishing employee contributions to the unemployment compensation fund after Jan. 1, 1940; extension to California of the Norris-LaGuardia federal law prohibiting injunctions in labor disputes unless it is shown irreparable damage would result if injunction was not issued; and prohibit employers from counting tips received by employees as part of their wages.

EX-CONVICT IS HELD TO ANSWER

Jesse Cobb, ex-convict captured in Los Angeles several weeks ago after he attacked police and was over-powered, waived preliminary hearing today on a charge of issuing fictitious checks here and was bound over to superior court by Justice Howard C. Cameron of Santa Ana justice court.

Information against Cobb will be filed in the higher court tomorrow at 10 a. m. Cobb, who asserted he had been in hiding two years, was arrested on a bench warrant issued here. He, with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Maynard, assertedly passed half a dozen checks for $25 each at local business houses. The Maynards were captured and sent to jail previously. Justice Cameron set bail at $5000. Cobb faces trial following the filing of information against him.

BISHOP WARNER TO CONDUCT SERVICE

Bishop Ira D. Warner, of Pomona, bishop of the Pacific area of the United Brethren church, and the Rev. Logan Harter, of Los Angeles, conference superintendent of the California United Brethren churches, are making a tour of the churches of the state and will be at the local church at West Third and Shelton streets this evening.

They will meet church officials at a potluck supper at 6:30 p. m. At 7:30 o'clock they will conduct an inspirational and evangelistic service at which time Bishop Warner will deliver the sermon. The public is invited to the service at 7:30 o'clock.

Name Frankfurter To High Court

less occasioned considerable surprise inasmuch as the President only last Tuesday said that no decision on the court appointment had been reached. Moreover, he had indicated at that time that only routine recess appointments would go up to the Senate today.

Little Opposition

Senators generally predicted that the nomination would be confirmed with little opposition. It was referred to the senate judiciary committee for consideration. Republican Leader Charles McNary, R., Ore., said Frankfurter was "learned and qualified" but expressed regrets that the president did not appoint a western man.

A keen and erudite student of the law, a conscientious lawyer and a personality who sent young attorneys into the New Deal, Frankfurter has been termed "The most influential single individual in the United States."

Known As Liberal

Frankfurter will not be able to assume his place on the supreme court until he is confirmed. His appointment will have no effect on the conservative-liberal division of the court since he replaces Cardozo, another liberal. Presumably, he will join Justices Louis D. Brandies and Harlan F. Stone as the nucleus of court liberals.

With the two Roosevelt appointees—Black and Reed—this group will comprise a liberal majority on the court at least five. Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes and Associate Justice Owen J. Roberts, have combined their votes with this liberal bloc on key New Deal issues before the court in the last two years. Their general adherence to liberal principles limits the consistent conservatives to Justices James C. McReynolds and Pierce Butler, survivors of the once dominant conservative majority.

Chairman Henry F. Ashurst, D., Ariz., of the judiciary committee, which will consider the nomination, commented that "Frankfurter is probably one of the most superb intellects in the country."

civic center where George Kidwell, of the American Federation of Labor, Harry Bridges of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, Herbert Carasco of the Railway Brotherhoods, Lt. Gov. Ellis E. Patterson and George T. Davis, Mooney's counsel, will speak.

After the celebrations, Mooney's future plans, he has said, will be to devote the remainder of his life to effecting unity in the labor movement and in attempting to obtain the release of Warren K. Billings.

Falling Out of Ranks

The tension of inspection was too much for Cadet A. J. Wildy, of the Royal Military Academy in Woolwich, England. He fell in a dead faint as his colonel approached, but like a good soldier, he held on to his gun. Like good soldiers, too, his comrades stayed at attention. Only one man broke ranks—in military fashion—to help him.

BROTHER OF S. A. RESIDENT PLANS TO RESIDE IN GERMANY

By GEORGE HART

"Why am I going to Germany to live?" George F. Siemsen, retired Jersey City confectioner, here with his family for a goodbye visit with his brother, W. H. Siemsen, 1814 North Main street, looked surprised at the question.

"Why shouldn't I?" he countered mildly.

Suppression Abounds

The interviewer was frankly astonished. "But why would you or any American citizen want to leave a free country and live in a totalitarian state, where the press is muzzled, speech is restricted, religion suppressed, labor oppressed, the Jews slaughtered, and a dictator tells everybody what they can or can't do—mostly can't?"

His eyes widened. "All that?" he murmured politely. "Strange," he added, half to himself, "that I didn't see or hear any of that while I was living there." That, he explained, was from 1935 to 1937.

Still An American

"I should, perhaps tell you," he went on, noting the interviewer's restive stance, "that I not only am an American citizen, but have no intention of giving up either my American citizenship or my American residence. I shall live in Germany when and as long as I prefer. I have property interests in both countries, and just now it is advantageous for me to live in Germany to get the benefit of my interests there. I am not a member of the German-American Bund nor the Nazi party, and am not interested in German politics, I expect to mind my business as an American citizen."

Born In Germany

"I was born in Germany, came to America when I was 15, and have lived in this country 27 years, except for the two years from 1935 to 1937. I can see that you want to ask me a lot of questions about Germany. I shall tell you only what I know, first hand. I have no desire to spread propaganda either for or against Germany—about 90 per cent of our news from Germany now is, in my belief, propaganda. No, if I wanted to lie about Germany I could get money for it, lecturing every night. But I'm not interested in talking about it at all."

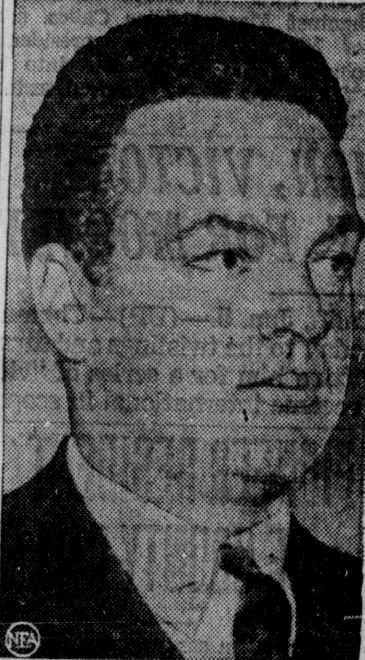

Knows His History

Graciously, however, Siemsen did converse on the subject of Germany and her problems, and convincingly displayed that he not only knows the mind of the German people, but every stage of development that has led to the present situation under the Hitler regime.

Siemsen said he may go to Germany in the spring, perhaps not until next fall. His daughter, Alice, 16, has completed high school but will continue her studies in Germany. The family will remain in that country until they feel like coming back to America, then they'll return.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Lela Walker, of Midway City; a daughter, Mrs. James Davis, Midway City; two sisters, Mrs. Edna Ross, Garden Grove, and Mrs. Vena Richardson, Bolsa; a half-brother, Ralph Ross, Garden Grove, and a brother, G. A. Walker, of Los Molinos.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday from Smith and Tutthill mortuary with the Rev. S. T. Borg officiating. Interment will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

INJURED IN CRASH

SHIPS MOVE FROM L. A. WHEN TRUCE IS REACHED IN SNARL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—(UP)—A truce was reached today in a labor dispute which halted cargo movement and tied up 16 ships in Los Angeles harbor since Tuesday.

Under the truce, the cargo are steadily employed, and the checkers would return to work a "key" group of permanently employed men in the interests of efficiency.

Checkers had demanded elimination of a $150 a month salary scale for some 80 men, and substitution of a straight hourly wage with all checkers being drawn from the hiring hall. They said this would spread the work more equitably and raise the monthly earnings to 175.

Approval Granted

The truce was agreed upon last night by Harry Bridges of the C.I.O. and by the Waterfront Employers association and was approved today at a rank-and-file meeting of the Checkers' union. Work on 24 cargo ships in the harbor was to begin at 10 a. m. Six more ships are due today. Lumber ships and tankers were not affected by the strike.

Agree

Employers agreed to the desirability for a greater spread of work among the more than 200 checkers, of whom only about 80

TENNIS BIGWIGS IN QUARREL OVER SITE

PHILADELPHIA—(UP)—A civil war of the tennis courts arose here today following a recommendation by the Davis Cup committee of management to transfer the 1939 challenge round from Germantown Cricket club to Marion Cricket club.

With such national tennis figures as Capt. Walter L. Pate of the Davis Cup team and Paul Gibbons, chairman-elect of the Middle States Tennis association involved, the controversy threatened to continue until the playing site is decided definitely at New York Feb. 4.

HITS AT RELIEF WORK IN NATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Sen. H. Styles Bridges, R., N. H., today opened fire on the nomination of Harry L. Hopkins as secretary of commerce with a blistering attack on his administration of relief.

Bridges denounced the selection of Hopkins on the grounds that administration of relief was one of the major issues of the November elections.

"Never Met Payroll"
"Here is the appointment of a man who has never met a payroll himself," Bridges cried. "He has only had experience as a social worker."

The Republican then recalled published reports, denied by Hopkins, that the relief administrator told a friend that "we must spend and spend, tax and tax, elect and elect."

Democratic Leader Alen W. Barkley, D., Ky., reminded Bridges that Hopkins had denied the statement. Bridges then put in the record a statement by Arthur Krock, New York Times Washington correspondent, that the statement had thrice been attributed to Hopkins and was not disputable.

Stepson Of Murder Victim Is Jailed As Suspect In Slaying

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 5.—(UP)—
Police jailed on suspicion of murder
today the stepson of James Peter, 58, Portland, Ore., financier, who was fatally injured while taking his family on a round of Hollywood night clubs.

George Phillips, 38, the stepson, told a story that conflicted with versions told by other witnesses, detectives asserted.

Story Differs
Phillips, when booked at the city jail, still insisted he did not know exactly how his stepfather was hurt. He said that as they left a night club, a stranger made an insulting remark to one of the women of the party, and in the ensuing altercation he was dazed by a blow. Upon reviving, Phillips said he saw the elder man lying on the sidewalk bleeding.

Police said a different story was told by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farin, Hollywood residents. They said the Farins were attracted to the commotion by a cry of "help, they are killing my father."

The Farins, detectives said, told of being informed that there had been a family quarrel, and left after helping put the injured man in the Peters automobile. They did not realize how seriously he had been injured.

Hit High Spots

The injured man was found to be dead when his relatives drove up to the hall of justice inquiring
the way to a hospital.

Peters had come here with his wife, Daisy, 15 year old daughter, Betty, stepson and the latter's wife, Helen, to see the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena and take in the Hollywood bright lights. They had visited some 10 or a dozen cocktail lounges and night clubs, having a few drinks
and collecting souvenir match
folders, when the injury occurred.

2. Make the Civilian Conservation Corps permanent and appropriate $285,000,000 for it in the next fiscal year.

Thumblin comparison of government business in the current 1939 fiscal year with the 1940
fiscal year, which will begin next July 1, is as follows:
Federal revenue and the national debt both up and expenditures and the deficit both down
for the new fiscal year.

The spending program, the deficit and the national debt bulge will raise a Congressional storm after yesterday's demonstration by Republicans and a scattering of Democrats in favor of economy when Mr. Roosevelt, in his annual message on the state of the nation, revealed his determination to spend. He based his spending theory on confidence that government money will prime the pump to a sustained business recovery.

Higher Income
As business improves federal revenue from current tax structure will increase. The national income now is around $60,000, 000,000. The President's objective is $80,000,000,000 or more a year.
Existing tax schedules would raise approximately $5,520,000, 000 if levied on a $60,000,000,
000 national income. Mr. Roosevelt estimated that tax rates would raise $6,000,000,000 annually on a national income of $70,000,000, 000; $8,000,000,000 on $80,000,000, 000 and $10,600,000,000 if the national income zoomed to $90,000,000, 000.

He will present detailed national defense plans to Congress next week with a warning that times
have changed with the airplane and that there will be no opportunity to train men against the next attack. He proposed $1, 126,000,000 to carry out normal defense commitments and an additional $500,000,000 program of which $210,000,000 would be appropriated and spent before July 1, 1940. Semi-military expenditures of more than $350,000,000
bring the defense spending total over the $2,000,000,000 mark.

WPA Goes On

No further public works program was proposed. The $1,000,

In Arms Probe

After informing Federal authorities that agents for McKesson and Robbins tried to sell him $250,000
rifles, promoter John M. Kantor, above, father of novelist MacKin-
lay Kantor, was held by New York police because he was "wanted" in four swindling cases.

000,000 pump priming voted last spring will not reach its peak until April and will continue well
through the following year.

But the Works Progress Administration goes on. Mr. Roosevelt almost immediately will ask somewhat more than $750,000,000
to continue WPA through part of February to June 30—Raising recovery and relief costs for this fiscal year to $3,187,000,000.

He expects to cut recovery and relief costs to $2,266,000,000 in the 1940 fiscal year, a reduction of

The 1940 sum will be distributed in part as follows:
1.—WPA—$1,500,000,000.
2.—National Youth Administration—$125,000,000.
3.—Farm Security Administration—$60,000,000.

It was stated that no national defense spending was concealed in either WPA or NYA spending plans.

Urges New System

In addition to the $422,000,000
new revenues requested, Mr.
Roosevelt pointedly remarked that no revenue provision ever has been made to cover federal grants to states for various social security purposes and that these will cost $288,000,000 in the next fiscal year.

This message projected a new federal bookkeeping system, one which might enable the budget to be set up in the last Roosevelt year without a deficit if Congress approved.

Congress was asked to study a plan to set up new accounts for loans and other recoverable federal disbursements. Federal corporations, such as the Farm Credit Administration, would finance themselves and the money
they raised would not be charged against the government as an expenditure. Annually the FCA, or other affected federal corporations, would strike a balance and Congress would make up any deficit—to be listed as an expenditure and charged against revenue
—or the corporation would declare

a profit and shunt the proceeds to the general treasury fund.
Self-liquidating public projects
would be carried in part as capital assets rather than as outright expenditures and, if successful, ultimately would pay for themselves without ever showing expense in the government's expense ledger.

Plan Laid For Olson Barbecue

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 5.—
(UP)—Four hundred pounds of garlic would last the ordinary family many a day but Gov. Culbert T. Olson's free barbecue here Saturday will use up that much in a few hours.

And that isn't all. Just take a look at some of the food items already on hand for the feeding of 125,000 persons: 8000 gallons of chili; 70,000 pounds of beef; 10,000 pounds of pink beans; 1600 gallons of tomato puree; 10 sacks of onions; 500 pounds of lard; 2 gallons of vegetable oil; 25 gallons of olive oil; 500 pounds of salt; 50 pounds
of pepper; 250 pounds of cheese; 50 gallons of vinegar; 600 pounds
of bacon, ham and salt pork; 20, 000 loaves of bread; 3000 pounds
of coffee; 10,000 gallons of milk;
and other food in proportion.

Seek Gamblers For Questioning

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 5.—(UP)—
Police today sought two well-known gamblers for questioning
in connection with the mysterious slaying of Weldon (Duckie) Irvin, former bookmaker, who was found shot and beaten to death
in his automobile on a Hollywood street last week.

Detective Chief Joseph Taylor said one of the gamblers was associated with Irvin to the day of his death.

by turning the administration of a work program over to local boards is either insincere or ignorant of the realities of local American politics."

The recommendation for $875-000,000 for WPA for the first months from February to June, inclusive, was materially above previous predictions of the cost of financing the relief program for the balance of the fiscal year.

The $875,000,000 deficiency appropriation, Mr. Roosevelt said, will supplement the $1,425,000,000
provided by the last congress to meet relief costs for the first eight months of this fiscal year.
The original appropriation virtually is exhausted, he said, and is insufficient hardly to meet needs through January.

"I urge speedy action on the part of Congress to provide these additional funds in order to prevent disruption of the program and consequent suffering and want on the part of the unemployed,"
he said.

Appropriation of $875,000,000, he said, will enable employment of 3,000,000 persons on relief during February and March. He said he contemplates diminishing relief rolls thereafter, with a tentative goal of 2,700,000 by June.

When the last Congress appropriated $1,425,000,000 for the first eight months of the fiscal year
Mr. Roosevelt said, it was believed that figure adequately would meet all need through February.

"However, during the period prior to the adoption of this legislation, when unemployment was increasing, the increase in the number employed on the Works Progress Administration did not keep pace with the need for employment
because the Works Progress Administration had funds to employ only part of those who were out of jobs," he said.

Demands on WPA, he said, were complicated by two additional factors: A deflationary force exerted on business and industry by a critical international situation
and the September New England hurricane which added to the relief burden in that area.

Consolidate WPA Offices

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—(UP)— Further concentration of WPA administrative authority in Southern California under the Los Angeles office was indicated today.

The first step brought Ralph
B. Smith, San Bernardino-Riverside area manager, here as a zone engineer, Col. Donald H. Connelly, Southern California administrator, announced.

Supervision of projects in Santa Barbara county will be shifted to the Los Angeles office within the next two weeks, Col. Connelly said. Stanley Banks, Santa Barbara county area manager, will be given other duties in Santa Barbara.

SPORTS WHIRLIGIG

Al Krueger, the Trojan end whose pass-catching broke up the Rose Bowl, was born in Orange, lived there until he was 10. He attended the Immanuel Lutheran school. Krueger supplied his relatives in and around Orange with free passes to the Pasadena game rather than sell his comps, as most players do. Like most of the Orange county highway patrolmen, Jimmy Holcomb was stationed at the Rose Bowl. Boyd Morgan halfback, an old friend from their Imperial valley days, told Holcomb he never had been socked as hard in all his grid career as he was by the Dukes.

Santa Ana jaycee's executive committee yesterday voted sweaters to 11 two-year Don football lettermen, the only catch being that the athletes finish their semester's schooling. Those approved were Captains Larry Timken and Johnny Joseph, Ted DeVellis, Carroll Joy, Jete Kotlar, Cy Leivermann, Jack Lentz, Gil Nehr, Jerry Nesmith, Dick Saunders, Virgil Stevens and Harold Tucker.

The grand rush is on for the graduating Dons. Leivermann was wanted at Washington, St. Mary's and Oregon. Joseph probably will wind up at S. C. although Washington, Fresno State, San Diego State and Redlands already are rushing Coach Bill Cook's "great" Santa Ana end. Dick Saunders says he's going to West Virginia. U. DeVellis and Arnett probably will follow Ted Shipkey to New Mexico. U. Carroll Joy prefers Oregon. Kotlar has expressed a likeness for Nebraska, university of his home state. Timken and Nehr are dubious about continuing at college. Stevens may go into a station at Randolph field in Texas. Lentz intends to pursue a course at a Los Angeles business college.

Ten possibilities for 1939: (1) Organization of an all-star girls' softball team in Santa Ana that will make a play for some of the gold dug up by the Orange Lionettes; (2) the strongest track team in jaycee's history; (3) Santa Ana without a National Night league franchise for the first time since its foundation; (4) New football coaches at Orange county high schools; (5) State prep sprinting records by Eddie Morris of Huntington Beach; (6) Re-opening of the Orange County Athletic club (by Daro's wrestlers) before summer; (7) Joe Rodgers to be in Orange or Anaheim as night ball boss, accompanied by Messrs. George Murray and Glen Kelley; the other old Huntington Beach bread-winners returning to the Oilers; (8) A brand new bowling academy; (9) The groundwork laid for a park here where "real" baseball is played; and (10) Revision of the "amateur" rules of the Santa Ana City softball league.

Deer hunters legally killed 99 deer in Orange county during 1938, the largest "take" since 1931, when 114 were bagged. The same number was reported for 1937. The average bag from 1927 to 1938 was 71, and only in 1931 did the number exceed 100. Since the deer tag law became effective in 1927, deer kills in Orange county (by years) follows: 1927, 56; 1928, 69; 1929, 81; 1930, 90; 1931, 114; 1932, 87; 1933, 36; 1934, 55; 1935, 40; 1936, 54; 1937, 99, and 1938, 99. Throughout the state, this season's kill was 35,039, approximately 3000 more than last year and the largest number since 1927.

FRED SINGTON SOLD TO BROOKLYN CLUB

NEW YORK—(UP)—The New York Giants today announced receipt of two more players' contracts and the Brooklyn Dodgers said they had completed transactions in the purchase of outfielder Fred Sington.

The latest Giants to sign—Pitcher Carl Hubbell's contract arrived yesterday—were Pitcher Bill Lohman and infielder Lou Chiozza.

Sington was obtained from Chattanooga of the Southern association last fall on a conditional basis. He joined the Dodgers late in the season and batted .358 for 17 games.

FULLERTON—Art Nunn's Fullerton Yellowjackets found the bucket often enough to win a 50 to 38 decision over Glendale yesterday last night. Tom Keese, with 16 points, and Homer Joyner, with 13, led the scoring.

TENNESSEE AND T. C. U. REJECT 'PLAYOFF' GAME

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(UP)—Officials of both schools today rejected proposals to match the University of Tennessee and Texas Christian in a football game for the "National championship."

A New York promoter and officials of two Southern cities had proposed such a game to be played this month.

"There has to be an end to all good things," said William M. Cox, member of the Tennessee athletic council. "Another post-season game would interfere with the university's scholastic program and with the boys' classes."

Tennessee and T. C. U. should have met in one of the bowl games. That way the championship would have been decided."

In Fort Worth, Howard Grubbs, T. C. U. athletic director, said: "The T. C. U. football season is definitely over."

An unnamed New York promoter had suggested the game. So had the Atlanta celebrations committee which proposed a game in that city Jan. 14 or 21, and Gov. Richard Leche of Louisiana who invited them to play in the Louisiana State stadium in Baton Rouge at the "earliest convenient date."

Jaysee Netters Play Compton Here Tomorrow

Compton Jaysee's tennis forces will invade the Santa Ana high school courts here Friday at 3 p. m. for a tournament with Santa Ana Jaysee, thus opening the 1939 tennis season here.

The Don lineup will consist of Lloyd Babcock, first singles; Bill Holland, second singles; Bill Hill, third singles and Ralph Bradley, fourth singles. Art Hooker and Carroll Richardson will pair off against the Tartars in first doubles and Bob Mize and Bob Heath will team up in the second doubles. Marvin Jacobs, a star of Santa Ana high's team last year, will join the Dons later in the season. He has not yet rounded into condition.

'Y' LEAGUE TO PLAY WITH NINE TEAMS

While managers in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball league were meeting last night to draw up a second-half schedule and discussing whether to replace the Patterson Dairy five that withdrew from the league last week, the T. J. Neal Sporting Goods cagers scored an easy win over the Barr Lumber quintet, 52-28.

Paced by Bob Schwarm, center, who dropped in seven field goals for a total of 14 points, followed closely by Forrest Neal and "Chuck" Denio who tallied 12 points each, the Neal five was never in danger and led at the half 28-18. Only nine teams will compete in the second round. Drawings for the remainder of the season would be completed within a few days.

Karl's Shoes five, originally scheduled to play Patterson's Dairy tonight, will draw a bye this week. The Treesweet-Gas company game, postponed from last night, will be played Monday followed by the Elitiste International Truck-Al's Lock and Key game.

NEW YORK—(UP)—Long Island university was ranked today as one of the strongest basketball teams in the country as it marked up its ninth straight victory.

Passed, Received For S. C. Victory

Howard Jones and his entire staff of Rose Bowl coaches will be in Santa Ana Tuesday for the annual "Sports Night" of Elks lodge No. 794.

The University of Southern California's "head man" will be principal speaker on a program to which all Orange county junior college and high school coaches, seniors and captains-elect have been invited by Dr. G. C. Ross and Victor Walker, committee chairman.

Another speaker will be Ernie Johnson, Pacific Coast baseball scout for the Boston Red Sox.

Heroes of the day in Southern California are those two U. S. C. players who scored in the last 30 seconds of play in the Rose Bowl game for a 7-3 win over Duke. Doyle Nave, right, did the passing. Al Krueger, left, receiving and scoring, and they're reading a newspaper account of their feat.

swap with Harry Cooper, the man they regard as the greatest of all putters. Little and Snead admit that Smith has the finest eye in the business, and can "read" strange greens more quickly than anyone else, but they do not believe that his putting stroke is equal in mechanical perfection to Cooper's.

All of this sounded strange to me, because your average golfer would rather hit a long tee shot than sink a 20-foot putt. With us, the brave band that plays two-bit golf for two-bit Nassau, the tee shot is the bread and meat of our existence. When we thunder one 200 yards down the fairway it is because our swing is perfect. When we sink a long putt it is because our luck is holding.

Next to hitting long drives, most of us like to get a hot tip on a race. In the interest of science I recently decided to trace down the source of one hot tip that spread around Santa Ana and had me, for one, doing a Jesse Owens toward the Mutual window.

I saw a horse named Joe Sam, and I mentioned to Spencer Tracy, who dies at the race track as often as he does on the screen, that I had once known a boy named Joe Sam. I then wandered away and 10 minutes later I got an extra hot tip on Joe Sam and rushed to get all the change I had left in my pocket on his nose.

When I traced my "hot" tip back, here is what happened: When I left Tracy, Oliver

HOWARD JONES GUEST AT ELKS 'SPORT NIGHT'

Howard Jones and his entire staff of Rose Bowl coaches will be in Santa Ana Tuesday for the annual "Sports Night" of Elks lodge No. 794.

The University of Southern California's "head man" will be principal speaker on a program to which all Orange county junior college and high school coaches, seniors and captains-elect have been invited by Dr. G. C. Ross and Victor Walker, committee chairman.

"Jeff" Cravath, Hobbs Adams, Julie Besco and possibly Bob McNeish will accompany Coach Jones here. Elks and their guests hope to hear some of the "inside dope" on the Trojan-Duke game at Pasadena last Monday.

Another speaker will be Ernie Johnson, Pacific Coast baseball scout for the Boston Red Sox.

There will be vaudeville and a buffet dinner after the program, which starts about 7:45.

Dean Signs With Cubs For $20,000

CHICAGO (UP)—"Dizzy" Dean learned today that his arm was "okay" and shortly afterward signed his 1939 contract with the Chicago Cubs at a reported salary of $20,000.

Doctors reported new x-ray examinations of the mysterious shoulder ailment that nearly blighted Ditz's pitching career showed that a muscle tear was healing "very satisfactorily" and that Dean should be able to take his regular turn on the mound when the season starts.

Diz himself was elated that his $185,000 arms was responding satisfactorily.

"I never felt better in my life and my only hope is that I can go out and win 20 or 25 ball games next season."

DONS, CONCORDIANS TANGLE AT ORANGE

One of the better basketball games of the season is slated tonight at Walker Memorial hall in Orange, where Coach Bill Cook's Santa Ana Jaysee Dons go gunning for Coach Vic Baden's Concordia club cagers, long-time independent rival of Don fives.

The game starts at 8 o'clock. Coach Cook will start his strongest lineup against the Concordians. He will use plenty of reserves, however, in an effort to get a better line on his material.

Bob Schildmeyer will get the call at center. Captain Charles Hall and Art Heinisch are slated for forward duty, with Ted DeVellis and Russ Dearden spelling them.

The two starting guards will be Lynn Arnett and Larry Monroy. Del Holan, Henry Martinez, Don Borden, Jack Stafford, Jimmie Nunez, Bob Scott and Elson Gaeb are others certain to break into the lineup.

The Concordians will be paced by Clarence Pargue, Walt Gunther and Ted Walker.

HURLER HERRMANN SOLD TO OAKLAND

SAN FRANCISCO—(UP)—The San Francisco baseball club today announced the sale of Pitcher Leroy Herrmann to the Oakland club. The cash consideration was not announced.

Herrmann, right-handed, underhanded pitcher, was with Hollywood and San Francisco last year. He pitched in 35 games and won 10 and lost 6. Herrmann was with Los Angeles a few years ago and was sold to Cincinnati.

Nave, Hero Of Rose Bowl, To Get Letter

LOS ANGELES—(UP)—Award of a football letter to Doyle Nave, hero of the Rose Bowl game, was recommended today by Coach Howard Jones.

The substitute quarterback warmed University of Southern California's bench most of the season hence has only one-third of the 165 minutes of playing time required for a letter.

His teammates concurred that Nave deserved the emblem for the four straight passes he shot to Al Krueger for the 7-3 victory over Duke in the dying seconds of the New Year's game.

With not a single hold-over contract and three consecutive and mopped up world championships, it is expected that the New York Yankees will experience more trouble than usual in signing all hands. Among those who undoubtedly will want more is Vernon Gomez, the eminent left-hander who took that cut.

Basketball writers are now convinced that basketball coaches are more psychopathic than their football colleagues.

Branch Rickey's address on purity before the football coaches once more proves that the Cardinal director can talk fluently on anything.

Connie Mack may not realize it, but he drafted the wildest man in baseball when he took Tarzan Parmelee from Minneapolis. In the American association last season, the large right-hander walked 167, hit nine, and had 22 wild pitches. But won 17 while losing 13. And yielded only 218 hits in 240 innings.

SEMI-STALL AIDS BRADLEY; HELP FAILS TO HELP WINGS

Bradley Tech's great basketball team takes full advantage of its speed by using a semi-stall, playing the defenders to force play. When the Oregon players moved out as the Peoria squad held control, the Techmen broke for the basket with lightning speed.

Manuel Salvo, purchased by the Giants from San Diego, is a right-hander 21 years of age, standing

6 feet 4, and weighing 205 pounds. Won 22, lost nine, pitching in 40. Second to Freddie Hutchinson, who goes to Detroit, in games won and lost. Pitching 239 innings, and they scored only 70 runs off him. Struck out 194 to lead the Pacific Coast league, walked only 84.

Detroit paid $30,000 for Charley Conacher and the goalie, Tiny Thompson, and still the Red Wings can't get themselves arrested in the National Hockey league.

DUKE, PITT WERE ON STILTS; JOHNSON CLICKS AS COACH

Dr. Jock Sutherland says Pitt's game with Duke wasn't any criterion of either team's strength. He asserts that by the end of the first quarter in the Durham show both clubs were walking on stilts.

Can't get over Eric Tipton's kicking. He'd seen fellows kick consistently out on one side, but the Blue Devil star took both sides in the cold and with a slippery ball.

Ching Johnson, the celebrated defenseman of the Rangers and Americans, is making good as a coach. His Minneapolis Millers are setting a hot pace in the American Hockey association.

Archie San Romani, who sped to an American native record in the Conklin 3000-meter special of the Columbus Council, Knights of Columbus, track meet a year ago, defends the trophy in Brooklyn, Saturday night. Last trip the judges separated San Romani and Don Lash, but there was no difference in the clockings, 8:27.4.

NEW YORK — The right hand of million myself before I got going. Jess is a great fellow. I owe him a lot. Maybe we can cook up something.

He said he could use Willard as a distributor for a liquor which bears the "Dempsey" label or give him a position at one of the other of his New York restaurants or at his Miami hotel.

"He gave me my first break," Dempsey said. "He'd been out of the ring for a couple of years, but when I came up as challenger he didn't try to give me the run-around. He signed for me without any monkey business."

Since that battle many ring critics have cast aspersions on Willard's ability. At one time Jack Johnson said their 1915 Havana title fight, which Willard won, was not on the up-and-up, that Willard was handed the title.

"Jess is the most underrated man who ever held the title," Businessman Dempsey said. "He could knock you dead with a right uppercut. He hit me with one in the second round at Toledo and it stunned me. It didn't land on the button, but if it had, it might be a different story today. Willard was no palooka champ."

"And don't forget he was softened up and off in his timing when I met him, while I was in the best condition of my career. It was just the old story of a youngster coming up and an old guy going down. But I almost went down myself."

"And now if Jess is down himself, I'd like to give him a lift back up."

Get That Gal a Gallus, Errol

They don't stay up so well after all. Master of most any situation in the movies, Errol Flynn stands by helpless and aghast as Mrs. Jack Warner adjusts things during opening of Earl Carroll's new Hollywood night club-restaurant-theater.

More About Tee Shots and Tips

Hardy came up and asked Tracy who he liked in the next race. Tracy said, "The only thing I have heard mentioned is Joe Sam." Hardy went to Joe E. Brown and said that he had just had a tip on Joe Sam. Brown hurried over to share the "good thing" with Florence Rice. Florence gave it to her mother, who gave it to Grantland Rice, who gave it to Bing Crosby, who gave it to Frank Lloyd, who gave it to Frank Condon, who rushed over to me and said:

"Pal, we'll all get even this race. There's a thing named Joe Sam who can't miss."

Joe Sam didn't miss. Didn't miss being fourth, that is. Now I know where one hot tip was born. In Georgia, and his name was Joe Sam, and I'm sorry I ever knew him.

RADIO EXPERT IS SPEAKER TO LIONS

ORANGE, Jan. 5.—W. E. "Bud" Whitman, radio technician at the Orange county radio station, was speaker yesterday at the meeting of the Orange Lions club. Norol Evans, well known short wave operator, was program chairman. White stated that 800 square miles of territory in this vicinity now are covered by the county radio service. The area in the county not linked by radio to others is San Juan Capistrano, he said.

Seven law enforcement departments are using the county station at the present time, said Whitman. A two way radio was installed recently in Sheriff Jess Elliott's car, another in the car of State Forest Ranger Joe Scherman, and one has been installed in the car of Capt. Henry Meehan of the state highway patrol.

Whitman declared that the Orange county is the only interzone radio station in the state, having made the first application for it. Los Angeles county has an alternate inter-zone station, he said. A spare station is provided in the Orange county set-up to prevent interruption of service. The station would be able to manufacture juice and continue service for some time if the Edison service were interrupted, he said.

String Quartet To Appear In S. A.

QUARTET TO GIVE CONCERT JAN. 13

An evening of chamber music by the noted Curtis String quartet has been arranged for the Santa Ana concert series Friday evening, January 13, at Santa Ana high school auditorium.

The ensemble was founded in 1927, members being Jascha Brodsky, violin; Charles Jaffe, violin; Max Aronoff, viola and Orlando Cole, cello. The advantage of constant association and individual and group study under the world's great masters has been no small factor in perfecting the unity of instrumental technique and musical ideals that has brought the quartet distinction both here and abroad, according to local musicians.

A capacity audience is expected to attend the program of the ensemble here.

AMATEUR ADULTS TO BE ON STAGE

Eight adult acts of outstanding amateur vaudeville, with 15 persons appearing in person, will keynote tomorrow's regular "Opportunity Night" program on Walker's stage, an added feature of Friday night shows at the theater.

The regular screen bills also will be shown and include "Hard to Get," a Dick Powell-Olivia de Havilland comedy of charming proportions, and "Down on the Farm," another comedy of the Jones Family antics. Also on the screen will be "Filming Big Thrills." Those on the "Opportunity Night" stage program, which begins at 8:45, will be among the others who have performed or who will perform in the future, eligible for competition in the finals contest 10 or 12 weeks from now. Winners of the finals contests will be awarded cash prizes or trips from home. Those wishing to enter "Opportunity Night" may leave their names at the box office or register between 11 a. m. and 12 noon Fridays.

OVER THE TRANSOM

Like rows of wooden soldiers completely routed in battle, or a row of dominoes which fell with a touch at its beginning, fallen lines of Christmas trees, some with a still lingering tinsel touch or a gaudy trifle which will not see another Yuletide, centered almost without exception every trash can out this week for collection by the city. The few trees which escaped this wholesale massacre, waited for a cremation in family backyard bonfires.

Prospects of a pleasant winter to be spent on Balboa Island as the guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. The Hathaways, who had been Christmas guests at the Vile home, were returning to the island from the north when the accident occurred.

Clair Head, Garden Grove postmaster may have a new clock for his automobile if negotiations for the purchase of a Swiss watch now under way with a Garden Grove jeweler are completed. One of the largest on record, the 14 ounce 17 jeweled Swiss watch in a silver case, has a diameter of 3 1/2 inches. Democratic Postmaster Head no doubt feels a democratic affection for the timepiece as it was formerly the property of the manager of the Democratic headquarters at Garden Grove.

Asked an opinion of the traffic talk and films presented Tuesday evening at the Costa Mesa Main school auditorium by Louis Van Orman, Los Angeles traffic expert, one Mesan ventured this opinion. "He said 5,000 people were in the cemetery because of traffic accidents in California last year." The realization by the general public that although it takes 5,000 nuts to hold an automobile together, the one behind the steering wheel can scatter it all over the landscape may lesson by legions, traffic tragedy.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

EGG PRODUCTION, FEED COSTS REVEALED IN ANNUAL REPORTS

One of the co-operative projects carried on by the poultry department of the Orange County Farm Bureau, the Agricultural Extension service and local poultrymen is the keeping of accurate records of all items of cost and income pertaining to poultry projects.

These records have been kept by poultrymen in the county for the past 12 years and furnish a very handy reference in comparing items of cost or income today with like items in any period in the past 12 years, according to Ross E. Crane, assistant farm advisor.

Costs Compared
Any poultryman in the study can compare his costs and income with any other poultryman in the submitted for the 11 months of 1938 revealed that the average number of hens in the flocks varied from 598 to 922, the average monthly production of eggs per hen varied from a high of 16.6 in April to a low of 9.5 in October and November.

Mortality Lower
Mortality was consistently lower than in 1937, being about 1.7 per cent per month. The cost of feed showed a steady regular decline from January, when grain averaged $1.93 per cwt, to November, when the price averaged $1.50 per cwt.

The 1938 records will be summarized early this year and when completed, copies may be obtained at the farm advisor's office in the courthouse annex.

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 5.—Settling in around (RKO and Columbia): Irene Dunne, starring in RKO's "Love Affair," is starting the new year with a new set of rules governing her screen career. She is determined to make not more than three pictures a year because: (1) she wants time to enjoy her new home and to be with her husband and her adopted daughter; (2) she believes that long vacations result in better work; and (3) she is convinced the public soon tires of stars who are seen on the screen often than three times a year. She is resolved to alternate between comedies, musicals and dramas because: (1) by never appearing twice in succession in the same type of picture, her fans will have no opportunity to compare any production with its predecessor and (2) stars who establish their versatility are longer lived than those who allow themselves to be typed.

Irene is simply putting into practice the convictions of most screen greats. Ginger Rogers is demanding a chance at something besides dancing roles, Dick Powell and Joan Blondell have rebelled because they were being typed, Sonja Henie wants to take off her skates for a picture or two, Tyrone Power is pleading for a comedy. Since the only stars who can regulate their careers by such ideals are those who free-lance, there is a general disinclination to sign up with any one studio—and economic conditions are making the studios chary of big contract lists. The net result promises to be the collapse of the old exclusive contract system. Hollywood is due for a new order of things.

CHATTER ABOUT RKO IDOLS—Astrid Allwyn, always the "other woman," spends most of her time talking about her tiny daughter. Irene Dunne learned to play the ukulele during a lunch hour—and it sounds just that way. Disturbing reflection about the Joy Hodges-Lee Bowman romance: it started while Lee was working in "Love Affair"—any publicity man might see a connection. Sometimes I think Eddie Cantor's eyes are that big to match the size of his heart. Cited for the Croix de Merite: Byron Stevens—just extra, but asking no favors because his big-sister, Barbara Stanwyck, is a star. It was Charles Boyer who financed the test that won his stand-in, Richmond Lynch, an acting contract. Cary Grant used to be a stilt walker, but since he's struck movie gold, he just walks on air.

Spent the morning chatting with Dick Barthelmess, who is playing a leading role in Columbia's "Plane Number Four" after a screen absence of years. In

Cecilian Singers Prepare for Concert Season

Now well launched on the fifth consecutive season, Cecilian Singers, Santa Ana organization of feminine voices, is preparing for its next concert appearance on the night of January 24 in the high school auditorium. The chorus is functioning this year under direction of Mary Batten Steffenson (Mrs. J. Leslie Steffenson) who will wield the Cecilian Singers' baton for the first time at the approaching concert. There will be a guest artist on the evening's program of chorus numbers.

CITES PROBLEM OF COLONIES

As far as Germany is concerned, the problem of regaining her colonies resolves itself into three questions—those of honor, right and economics—according to the Rev. Robert Burns McAulay, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Orange, in speaking to members of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club yesterday at the Masonic temple.

"Germany feels that her national honor has been challenged by the loss of colonies; that by the Congo Convention of 1885 and Wilson's 'Fourteen Points' it has a moral right to the lost territory; and that the return of the source of raw materials is an economic necessity," Dr. McAulay said.

Visited in Europe
Dr. McAulay was one of a group of Americans who studied in Europe during the past summer with the Sherwood Eddy American Seminar. He was introduced by Program Chairman Rev. Albert E. Kelly, pastor of the Santa Ana United Presbyterian church.

President Lyle Mitchell was in charge of his first regular meeting since his inauguration last week. Santa Ana high school students, led by David Schwartz, presented a group of musical selections in announcing the annual concert of the high school band to be given at 8 p. m. Jan. 12 at the high school auditorium.

Needy Children Get Shoes Fixed

One hundred free tickets for the repair of shoes today were in the hands of officials of the Santa Ana council of the P.-T. A. to be distributed to needy school children of the city, it was announced today. The tickets were donated by the Dan-Dee Factory Shoe repair management, 422 North Sycamore street.

Mrs. R. Deane Smiley, welfare chairman of the P.-T. A. council, of 2611 North Flower, who has the tickets, is awaiting report from the various schools. A survey is being made by school P.-T. A. officers to determine those who most need the tickets. The Dan-Dee organization agreed that some of the tickets might be distributed to junior high school, high school or junior college students as well as grade school students if the need be found.

CECILIAN SINGERS REHEARSE FOR PRESENTATION ON JAN. 24

With their first concert under the baton of Mary Batten Steffenson only a little over two weeks in the future, Cecilian Singers are devoting the next two weeks to intensive rehearsals in preparation for the event, to be held Tuesday night, January 24, in the High School auditorium. The concert will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Outstanding Program
Now in their fifth consecutive season, the Singers are planning to make this forthcoming concert one of their outstanding programs. Numbers now in rehearsal include "To the Spirit of Music" (P. R. Stephens); "Legend" (Tschalkowsky); the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria"; "Dream Song" (Stringham); "The Bow-Leg Boy" (Bergen); the Negro spiritual, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" arranged by Trinkhaus, and three Joseph W. Clokey numbers, "A Bird Flew," "The Last Night" and "Snow Legend."

Increasing interest in these three songs is the fact that the composer will be in the audience, and will be introduced from the auditorium stage. He is especially interested in the organization, since Mrs. Steffenson, the director, received some of her musical training under him.

Special Guest Artist
Plans are under way for the presentation of a special guest artist, with several ones under consideration, and announcement of final selection to be made at an early date.

Cecilian Singers are functioning this year under a group of officers comprising Violet Hilliard, president; Florence Markwood and Ramona Rabe, vice-presidents; Elizabeth Morgan, recording secretary; Georgia Harve, corresponding secretary; Slavina Morrison, treasurer; Gustave Kohler, business manager; and J. E. Lloyd, publicity director. These officers, and anyone of the 45 members, have concert tickets available at a very nominal price. The organization is a non-profit one, whose sole aim is to help elevate musical standards in Orange county, and provide pleasant entertainment for all lovers of song.

Greene Visits In S. A., Fullerton

J. P. Greene, public relations officer for the fourth district of the state board of equalization, was a Fullerton and Santa Ana visitor yesterday, speaking before the Rotary club in Fullerton at noon and discussing state board affairs with Thomas E. Taylor, addresses before the Rotarians.

JUDGE RETIREMENT PLAN IS EXPLAINED

The retirement of Superior Judge James L. Allen under provisions of a state act making him a monthly allowance, is not a pension arrangement, attorney's pointed out here today.

It is an insurance retirement plan financed not by taxpayers but by the superior court judges themselves, and Judge Allen will be subject to call for duty by the state judicial council at any time, it was pointed out.

The retirement fund is created by deductions of five per cent of the salary of the judges of California. Judge Allen himself has paid $325 per year into the fund during the 12 years he has served on the bench.

Turner's Salary Raised by Board

An amendment to the county salary ordinance, which will increase the salary of Preston Turner, second deputy in the district attorney's office, from $275 to $300 per month, and reduce the salary of John Colwell, third deputy, from $275 to $250 per month, today had been adopted by the county supervisors, with Supervisor N. E. West not voting.

The amendment also provides for reclassifying one deputy sheriff, at $165 per month, to a turnkey, at $145. The particular deputy to be affected was not designated. The board yesterday received application of W. H. McGuire for the job as steward at the county jail, in charge of feeding prisoners. Creation of this post was recommended by Sheriff J. L. Elliott, but the board has not acted upon it.

Polio Lecture Set for Tonight

Joinink with the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, the adult education department of the Santa Ana school system will present Dr. Milton Berry of Van Nuys, who will lecture on infantile paralysis, at 7:30 p. m. today at the Willard auditorium.

This was the announcement today of Russell Sullivan, principal of Lathrop evening high school, who will be in charge of the meeting. Motion pictures will be shown at the conclusion of the lecture.

S. A. FIRE LOSSES DECREASED BY FOUR CENTS DURING 1938

Loss by fire in Santa Ana for 1938 per capita totaled 20 cents as against 24 cents for 1937, it was revealed in a comprehensive annual report presented today by Fire Chief John Luxembourger.

Figures indicate that the 1938 loss by fire, $7446.96, was the next to the least in the past 10 years, the 1936 loss being lowest—$3976.16, or 11 cents per capita.

$636,325 Involved
The report, to be filed soon with city council, shows $636,325 worth of property was involved in fires in 1938, and $824,150 in 1937. Greatest single loss for 1938 was in November when the William English house and two garages on North Flower burned with loss of $1262.50.

While the report chiefly deals with figures for the calendar year, loss figures since 1928-29 (fiscal year schedule) shows as follows: 1928-29, $23,385; 1929-30, $30,080; 1930-31, $25,367; 1931-32, $13,772; 1932-33, $29,625; 1933-34, $92,504; 1934-35, $15,718; 1935-36, $12,252; 1936-37, $9227; 1937-38, $3641. Of the 199 alarms answered, 63 were actual building fires; 32, auto fires; six false alarms; seven injured persons treated, seven incendiary and suspicious fires. Under the chief and Assistant Chiefs John Garthe and Elmer Gates, the men are on duty 17 at one time for 24 hours.

Causes of Fires
Among causes of the fires are rubbish and trash, 34; matches and smoking, 29; electricity, 21; petroleum and its products, 20. Four calls were for removal of cats from trees. In 1938, 2346 inspections were made as compared with 1421 last year and 1357 in 1936; 112 investigations were made in 1938 as compared with 59 in 1937 and 44 in 1936. One person was convicted of arson in 1938, Fire Marshal Frank Corey reported. Of 14 rescue cases calls worked on during 1938, six were successful.

Thanks to Public
"I wish to thank the public for its help in preventing fires here and its interest in fire prevention methods," Chief Luxembourger said. "I trust that citizens of Santa Ana will continue their aid, particularly by not following fire equipment apparatus to scenes of fires."

Seek To Weed Out Obsolete Laws

A project for codifying Orange county ordinances, with the purpose of weeding out obsolete laws, was requested of WPA by the county supervisors yesterday, when Fred P. Jayne of the federal agency was asked to set up the project. Two research workers and a stenographer-typist would be employed. County Counsel James E. Walker would supervise the job of streamlining the county's statute books.

Driver Sued For $5000 In Crash

Arne Hanson asked $5000 damages and John Woodhead sued for $100 for injuries they assertedly suffered last August 28 in an automobile accident on Coast highway south of Balboa. Their suit was filed in superior court against Harry Murray, driver of a car which collided with the car operated by Woodhead.

OUTLINE WORK OF LABORATORY

The new crop processing laboratory to be constructed in the San Francisco bay region by the United States Department of agriculture will be nation-wide in its scope, according to information received by the office of Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg from the University of California. Four of the laboratories are to be constructed at key points in relation to the agricultural surplus problem, and will be dedicated to the handling of such surplus in a manner designed to gain it an eventual market in the form of by-products.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace says the work of any one laboratory will not stop at the regional boundary. The co-ordinated program that is being drawn up will make the activities of each laboratory nation-wide in its effect upon uses of the commodities investigated, he stated. Actual cost of each laboratory will be more than $750,000, with $1,000,000 yearly being set aside for maintenance charges. Each will call for the services of at least 200 scientists and technicians. For the laboratory in the San Francisco region the University of California has made available a site in the Gill nursery tract in the town of Albany, immediately north of Berkeley.

Eagerness To Aid Shown In Will

Anxious to "relieve suffering," as her will stated, the late Bertha McMillan, who died January 2, bequeathed most of her $3000 estate to the Los Angeles Orphanic Foundation, it was shown when the document was filed for probate in superior court today by B. F. Beswick.

The First Presbyterian church of Tustin was remembered with a $200 bequest. Relatives and friends received personal effects.

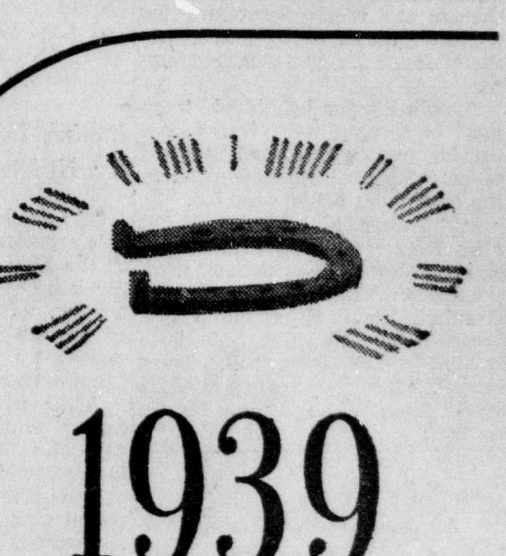

WATER DISTRICT MEETING

Directors of the Orange County Water district will hold their monthly meeting at board headquarters in the Medical building January 11 at 2 o'clock, it was announced today by C. A. Palmer, secretary of the district.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

New Officers Installed By Gold Star Mothers

Celebrating both the holiday season and their annual installation of officers, Gold Star Mothers of Orange county met Monday in Veterans hall for a very pleasant session indeed.

They devoted forenoon hours to their usual quilting, and at mid-day gathered about a gaily decorated table to enjoy a roast turkey holiday dinner, prepared and served by Mrs. Mary Croal and her assistants. Mesdames Hattie Perkins, Alice Sudduth, Martha Elliott and Lavinia Wood. As the delicious dinner reached the dessert course, the Mothers were served fruit cake and ice cream, the gift of Le-gionnaires, who expressed their interest by this kindly gesture, and by dropping in to offer New Year greetings in person. Among the callers were Commander Glenn Cave and members of the Drum Corps.

Mrs. Fannie Reeves of the Legion auxiliary, was a special dinner guest, as were three Gold Star Fathers, Messrs. Fred Perkins, Charles F. Wood and John E. Kellogg. Mrs. Reeves made a short talk in advance of installation rites.

Mrs. Emma Christensen was installing officer for Mesdames Edith Reynolds, president; Mary Croal, second vice-president; Mamie Gibson, treasurer; Bessie Windham, recording secretary; Martha Elliott, chaplain; Lavinia Wood, sergeant-at-arms; Dora Sweeney, custodian of records. Mrs. Myrtle Stull, first vice president, was absent so her installation will come later as will that of the corresponding secretary, an appointive officer.

Monday, February 6 will be the next regular meeting of the chapter, but a quilting meeting has been called for next Monday in Veterans hall, with covered dish luncheon at noon.

Present for the session were Mesdames Hattie Perkins, Orange; Bessie Windham, Huntington Beach; Emma Christensen, Tustin; Edith Reynolds, Garden Grove; Ruth Morris, Riverside; Dora Sweeney, Costa Mesa; Martha Elliott, Alice Sudduth, Mamie Gibson, Mary Croal, Van Nuys; Mrs. Myrtle Stull, Santa Ana; Mrs. S. Sharp, Santa Ana.

Santa Ana Country club was rendezvous for bridge club members yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Marguerite Borgmeyer was hostess at a prettily-arranged luncheon. Decorations were in the prevailing reds and greens of the season.

Mrs. Sara Johnston Haddon, Mrs. B. J. MacMullen and Mrs. A. L. Mellenthin held the three highest scores. Others present were the hostess and Mesdames Leonard Swales, H. T. Dunning, H. B. Van Dien, R. C. Hoiles, W. A. Flood, Howard Rapp, Mark Lacy and George Sattler, members; with a guest, Mrs. MacMullen's niece, Mrs. R. G. Harrison of Des Moines, Ia.

THEATER PARTY, SUPPER

One of the events of holiday time was an informal party for which Miss Bette Preble assembled a group of her high school friends. After attending a local theatre the coeds went to the hostess' home, 2429 Spurgeon street for a prettily-arranged supper.

Appointing the individual trays used in serving were verses concerning each guest. Reading aloud of these original rhymes added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Miss Carroll Miller assisted Miss Preble and her grandmother in serving. Others present were the Misses Mary Pocock, Corinne Wendorf, Violet Klingaman, Enid Jones, Betty McAuley, Marjorie White, Connie O'Donnell, Mary Friend, Madeline Swenson, Shirley Wolven, Jane Dale, Merrie Garrett.

January Affairs Outlined For Country Club Members

Now that the excitement of holiday time is giving way to a more normal calendar routine, Santa Ana Country club members are resuming their schedule of activities with renewed enthusiasm, it was announced today by Mrs. A. G. Flagg, chairman of social events for the membership.

Mrs. Frederic Dunstan has been named chairman of January parties. First event under her supervision was last Sunday night's buffet supper, with four other supper parties to be held this month. January 8, 15, 22 and 29 are the dates for these Sunday night affairs. Serving on the supper committees this month are Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Earel, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Maxwell and Messrs. and Mesdames Emil Wagner, Clyde Hill, Stanley Anderson, J. K. McDonald, H. T. Dunning and H. R. Brinkerhoff.

Scheduled for Friday evening, January 20 is a card party for all members. The Arthur Hays and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harrison are arranging various delightful features for this occasion, which will include the serving of refreshments and the awarding of prizes to winners in bridge. There will be no guest charge for this event, or for the afternoon bridge tea to be held Friday, February 27 at 2 p. m.

Hostesses at the afternoon card party will be Mrs. Lawrence Bemis, Mrs. Rex Kennedy and Mrs. George Sattler. Refreshments will be served, and prizes will be awarded. Those who wish to attend luncheon in advance of the general affair are asked to make reservations at the clubhouse.

No plans have been announced for dances this month. Mrs. Hugh Lowe and Mrs. R. C. Hoiles are chairmen of dances for Juniors; Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Fernandez, Riley Huber and William Jeffrey, in charge of dances for adults.

Friendly Group Invited For Birthday Dinner

In celebration of the birthday anniversary on Monday, January 2, of Hilfred Stephens, was a pleasant gathering at which Mrs. Stephens was hostess in their home, 1106 South Ross street. Guests arrived during the afternoon hours since the day was a holiday, and remained for the appetizing baked ham dinner prepared by their hostess.

The table, spread with shining damask, was centered with poinsettias which matched the holiday gayety suggested by the outdoor Christmas tree, which twinkled its lights on the lawn until after the New Year and birthday celebrations. With the final course of the dinner, the hostess served a big white birthday cake.

Bridge play of the evening hours was most successful for Amos Kingsley of Riverside, to whom prize for high score was presented.

With Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and their young daughter Marilyn, were the birthday host's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stephens of Long Beach, and their small daughter Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kingsley and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Skoff of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. William Rutan of Sunnymede, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haney of this city.

Parish Dinner Discussed By Episcopal Auxiliary

Of members of Episcopal Women's auxiliary gathered at Church of the Messiah yesterday morning for corporate communion at 11 o'clock, a score or more remained for the afternoon meeting conducted by the president, Miss Minnie Besser.

After naming several committees to continue the year's activities, Miss Besser brought up the budget, which was discussed and accepted. Much of the business interval was devoted to plans for the parish dinner to be held in parish hall next Wednesday night at 6:30 o'clock, designed to bring all the church families together. Because of this evening affair, there will be no meeting of St. Elizabeth Guild that day.

At the close of the afternoon of plans and needlework, Mrs. A. H. T. Taylor presided as tea hostess.

LAMBDA CLUB LUNCHEON
Mrs. Carroll Ault observed a poinsettia theme in decorations for a recent luncheon at which she received Lambda club members in her home, 2436 Riverside Drive. A tablecloth designed with the traditional California Christmas flowers spread the table, centered with a bowl of poinsettias. Ruby glassware added to the colorful setting.

Following luncheon, guests found places around a blazing fire on the hearth, chatting and sewing during the afternoon. The hostess served hot chocolate and cakes.

Present with Mrs. Ault were Mesdames Carl Lykke, Edward Gaebe, Bus Abels, George Daws and Warren Lampman.

New Barrie Play Reviewed For Woman's Club

Resuming programs temporarily lapsed during the counter attractions of the holidays members of Woman's club of Santa Ana shared an interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon in Veterans hall, where business features introduced by their president, Mrs. L. E. Tarbox, were followed by a play review by Mrs. L. L. Beeman.

Mrs. Tarbox took the occasion to make formal announcement of the fact that her husband's transfer to Santa Monica territory, would necessitate their moving to that city to make their home. She suggested that the clubwomen might wish to make some different arrangement for the completion of her term of office, but there was such whole-souled appreciation of her offer to return to this city for each regular semi-monthly program, and at least once a week for other club affairs, that she will retain the presidency, with the full assistance of her vice-president, Mrs. P. R. Arnold, and other officers.

Miss Blanche Seely, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Beeman, who is chairman of drama in the Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Beeman chose for review, the new play by Sir James Matthew Barrie, "The Boy David," prefacing it with a short biographical sketch of the author. She told of the success attained by his earlier plays, including that well-loved "Peter Pan," and others of wide popularity, and described "The Boy David" as one dealing essentially with youth, and yet the product of age.

Reading only occasionally from the play, Mrs. Beeman described it scene by scene, and told of her keen pleasure in seeing the play recently in Pasadena Community Playhouse, where it is still in production.

Departing Visitor Feted At Informal Dinner

Mrs. Andrew Smith of Decatur, Ill. who departs tonight for her home after a several weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, the J. E. Bradens, 2031 North Ross street, was incentive for a little dinner party last night in the Albert Raymond home in Fullerton.

Mrs. Braden's Christmas gift to Mrs. Raymond was an unbleached linen table cloth of Mexican design, with accompanying pen and India ink for the use of friends in writing their signatures on the cloth. Last night's guests were the first to initiate the clever gift. The hostess carried out the Mexican idea in other details of the informal dinner.

Chinese checkers were played later in the evening, which was shared by Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Raymond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gould.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED
Her thirteenth birthday anniversary was made a very happy event Tuesday for Miss Billie Jean Suggs, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Suggs, 211 South Birch street, invited a little group of her Julia Lathrop friends to dine and go to the theater.

Dinner served at a table garlanded with pink and green streamers and centered with the pink candled birthday cake, was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Suggs, their young daughter, her guests, Joyce LeGrand, Raymond Guldridge and Jack Burris. Miss Billie Jean received many pretty gifts.

Calumpit Auxiliary Staff Installed At Public Rites

Outstanding event of the season for Calumpit Auxiliary U. S. W. V. was installation of officers, an impressive ceremony held Tuesday night in Knights of Columbus hall in the presence of a large group of members as well as guests from various Southland points.

Installation rites for the camp were followed by the auxiliary's ceremony. Mrs. Ruth Hess, who took oath as president of the auxiliary, wore a white satin gown with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and gladioluses, and gift costume jewelry set with rubies. Among the many gifts which she received was a gavel with a silver band bearing her name and the date of installation. Made by Charles Graham, the gavel was presented to the new president by Cora Graham.

Mrs. Ida McLaughlin, department chaplain, headed the installing team composed of a musician and eight color bearers. Members of the staff appeared in their new white satin uniforms for the first time. Each of the group received a gift from calumpit auxiliary, with Mrs. Hess making the presentation.

Taking office with Mrs. Hess were Effie Hawley, senior vice-president; Maude Brown, junior vice-president; Grace Deck, chaplain; Bertha Helmer, secretary; Jane Winter, treasurer; Elva Hunt, musician; Edna Hannah, reporter; Dena Isbell, patriotic instructor; Ethel Lindley, historian; Phoebe Hyatt, conductress; Mary Cooper, assistant conductress; Cora Graham, guard; Marie Lindquist, assistant guard; Estelle Dresser, Anna Patmor, Susan Wine, Mary Mann, Mae Kellogg, Tillie Moesser, Mabel Sands and Jean Tantlinger, color bearers.

Baskets of poinsettias and cotoneaster decked the hall for the memorable occasion. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served by Della Cook, Myrta Brown, Catherine Haskell, Ada Treat, and a corps of assistants.

Preceding installation was a dinner party at Danigers', where 45 officers, members and guests assembled. Flags of all nations served as decorations. Mrs. Daniger and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, both of Calumpit camp and auxiliary, were among those participating.

End Ten-Day Stay

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Powers of Ames, Ia., returned Tuesday to their apartment in Los Angeles after a ten days' visit in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Crocker, North Sycamore street.

Entertaining at a recent supper party, the Crockers had as guests in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. La Noue Matta, Los Angeles; Miss Gene Striebig, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. George Yancy and Mrs. Mary Hodgdon, Fullerton; and Mr. Crocker's mother, Mrs. E. H. Crocker of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who is spending the winter here.

Holiday Newlyweds Make Home in Los Angeles

When Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Marks complete their honeymoon travels, they will establish a home in Los Angeles, according to the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitfield, 832 South Ross street.

Mrs. Marks was Miss Sue Jane Whitfield, and her wedding to Chester E. Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marks of Fullerton, was an event of Friday night, December 30, in Fullerton First Baptist church. The Rev. Francis E. Hawes, pastor of the church, conducted the 8 o'clock rites for which scores of guests were assembled.

The bride was beautifully gowned in satin and lace, shimmering under her tulle veil of finger-tip length, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a formal bouquet of gardenias and maidenhair fern. Her daintily attired attendants were Miss Margery Marks, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, Mrs. Virginia Whitfield and Miss Jean Farran.

William Whitfield, brother of the bride, served as Mr. Marks' best man, and Robert Farran and Don Marks ushered. Bridal music preceding the rites included a 15-minute organ recital with Louise Tate at the console, and the songs, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me," sung by Miss Beatrice McMahon.

Although church decorations were in white and green, with chrysanthemums and ferns at a low fence and archway at an altar, the Christmas colors prevailed in the Marks home on Malvern avenue, where 75 or more guests were received later in the evening. The bride cut the first slice of a three-tiered cake topped with tiny bride and groom figures. Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Mary T. Archer of Long Beach and Mrs. Evelyn Marks.

When the newlyweds departed on their honeymoon, the bride wore a black frock with martindale red jacket. She is a graduate of Fullerton High school and Junior college, as is Mr. Marks, who is also an alumnus of Woodbury College in Los Angeles.

Return From Washington

After a month's visit in the north with her daughter, Mrs. Steven Peters of Beverly, Wash., Mrs. Charles E. Dixon rejoined Mr. Dixon late the past week in their home, 1138 South Ross street. She spent a most enjoyable time in the north, with a fortnight in Spokane where she was entertained by Mrs. Peters' daughter, Mrs. Margaret Roper, and other friends. In Seattle she met Mrs. Ruth Williamson, daughter of the Milton Kelloggs of this city.

On the homeward trip by train, Mrs. Dixon had some harrowing experiences in heavy fogs, including an accident just out of Sacramento when the train ran into a truck, with fatal results to the truck driver.

Federal Poets Discussed By Modern Poetry Group

A mingling of the arts of poetry and music made Tuesday afternoon's meeting of Ebell Modern Poetry section a doubly pleasant affair in the home of the section leader, Mrs. Louis Vorhis, 306 Orange avenue.

In the absence of the program chairman, Mrs. Robert Northcross, her duties were assumed by Mrs. Aldric Worswick. The latter persuaded Mrs. Vorhis to add the musical note to the afternoon, by playing piano numbers. Her choice of Chopin Scherzo in B flat minor, and of selections from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde," gave enjoyment to the guests, who appreciated the deep musical understanding coupled with an almost masculine power, which distinguished her playing.

Mrs. Paul Velez was the afternoon's reviewer, presenting the Federal Poet's number of "Poetry Magazine," issued in July of the past year. She discussed the need of sympathetic insight into the work of a poetic group subjected to the current financial situation of the country.

Most of the poetry, she pointed out, registered a note of social protest and of futility, and its obscurity and new rhythms might come to be understood and accepted, much as the work of Robert Browning is understood and accepted today. Among examples of verse read were "Hold The Wire" and "A Dollar's Worth of Blood, Please," by Kenneth Fearing; "Flying in the Land of Peace" by the Catholic poet, Raymon Larsen; "The Blonde Cat" by Melvin Shelley, and the more understandable "The Struggle That Staggers Us" by Margaret Walker; "Litany" by Miriam Allen DeFord, and "The Inquiry" by Weldon Keef.

Mrs. Terry Stephenson will be hostess at the February meeting of the section, when Miss Verna Wells will be reviewer. Plans were discussed during a social hour when the small daughter and son of the home, Edith and Richard Vorhis, assisted their mother in serving holiday wassail to the guests.

YOU CAN OWN A DIAMOND

By R. A. Ewert

Once diamonds were a luxury, owned only by princes and nobles. More modest gems could be owned by the average woman, but diamonds were scarce and costly.

Today diamonds are generally worn. Women in the business world and conventional buying arrangements have made the gem more accessible.

There is a feeling of distinction in wearing a diamond hard to duplicate by any other possession. Moreover, its intrinsic value and lack of depreciation make the ownership of this valuable stone highly desirable.

Decide to buy a diamond. Go to a reliable jeweler. Let him explain the quality and classification of stones you inspect and allow him to help you make a sensible selection.

Mixing Bowl

By ANN MEREDITH

Were you caught napping this last Christmas, without gifts and little money to buy them at the down now and make out a list of probable "gifts" for next year and what you think you'd like to give each person within certain limits, then watch sales through the year, you'll find your Christmas shopping all done weeks before the holiday and the expense so distributed you'll have enough money to take a short trip or buy something you want for the house.

Believe me, it's a grand and glorious sight to see gifts wrapped and stacked ready for mailing three weeks before Christmas. Taking time by the forelock is the only way you can arrive at this elysian state. In making up your gift list don't forget that a magazine subscription is a gift for each month in the year and 12 times welcomed.

Have You a Calory List?

The exchange required for the Calory List is a contribution for the Mixing Bowl accompanied by a stamped, return-addressed envelope. Send for this interesting list of colored foods, with the new list for drinks.

SCOLLER'S. 312 North Sycamore street. It's Scoller's for coats. This store is featuring a simply grand sale on coats with reductions ranging from 10 to 40 per cent. The coat values, we frankly believe not to be excelled. You can pick up some good buys in tailored coats that will do either for spring or fall. Fur trimmed coats are also shown.

SCOTTIE'S. 5753 North Main street. Guys and gals attention! Vacation is over and now is the time to get in some of that hard study you meant to do over the holidays. During the noon hour, drive out to Scottie's where you can get super food and study in the privacy of your own car (well, maybe a friend's). Any way, the food is good.

JOHNSTON'S BUSINESS INSTITUTE. 415 North Sycamore street. Plan a career for yourself that you can be proud of. Insure your future by taking professional training at the Johnston Business Institute. This will fit you for a worthwhile position. You can begin courses at this institute anytime and you can take beginning, finishing or review. All graduates are placed in positions.

JIMMIE'S MALT SHOP. 1030 South Main street. Well, we wouldn't feel like we were starting the New Year out just right if we didn't tell you to drop in at Jimmie's after the dance for that barbecued hamburger or some delicious French fries. They are grand! Jimmie's has a complete fountain service too.

LADIAN'S DRESS SHOP. 515 North Main street. After Christmas sale at Ladian's. This store is having a general reduction on skirts, slacks and dresses. Goodness, there certainly are a lot of bargains! Just think the $7.95 dresses are being sold for $4.95, while they last. Hurry, hurry, hurry and profit by this sale.

WASHINGTON CLEANERS AND DYERS. 1109 North Main street. Start your New Year's record clean by having that suit or dress cleaned at the Washington. The many satisfied patrons of this establishment are proof in itself that the work they turn out is satisfactory and outstanding. This cleaners and dyers is a place that you can trust your choicest garments to. We like the idea of going through our closet and picking out our soiled clothing and sending it to the Washington. When an unexpected invitation arrives we are ready for the occasion.

LA GRACE SHOP. 413 North Sycamore street. A blouse can make or break an outfit. The tailored or fancy blouses at the LaGrace Shop were made to make an outfit. While we are talking about blouses it would be well for you to stock up on them now because they are having a 20 per cent reduction on all of them. Come in and see them.

SANTA ANA WOMAN'S EXCHANGE. 120 North Sycamore street. This shop was formerly located at 710 South Main street. The Woman's Exchange carries a thousand and one articles made by the ladies of this city. You may be assured that this is a home concern. It is a place where you may purchase merchandise as reasonably or as expensive as you want.

DAN DEE FACTORY SHOE REPAIR SHOP. 422 North Sycamore street. Have your feet grown in the last year? More to the point, are any of your shoes too small for you? If they are, this fault can be easily remedied by having them either lengthened or widened or both as much as one full size at the Dan Dee! Heel lifts are 19c while half soles either leather or composition are 79c.

SWANSON'S DRIVE INN. 1807 North Main street. We have said it before and we'll say it again. Good food and Swanson's just seem to go together. Anything from a hamburger up to a full course dinner, you may be sure it will be good if it's at Swanson's. The drive in service is very good with efficient and courteous help.

WIESSEMAN'S. 420 North Main street. Kitchen bargains at Wiesseman's: Queensware enamelware is on sale at this store for 1-3 off. This ware includes stewpans, coffee percolators, large kettles and many other kitchen articles all with colored lids and cream bases. Kook King enamelware is also sold at 1-3 off. Special prices are made on braided rugs in cotton or wool.

STAN McPHERIN, Men's Wear
515 North Main street. Snow expeditions are the most popular amusements for youngsters and oldsters alike about this time of year. With the coming of the snow season one has to outfit in heavy tags for invading the colder climates. The cozy looking, and we imagine just as cozy feeling, ski mitts shown at Stan's are especially nice. They come in such gay colors (very, very bright) and in sizes small, medium and large. We liked too, the cheery genuine Scotch plaid scarfs for $2. Oh yes, we almost forgot that the mitts are $1.95.

BROADWAY CORSET SHOP. 306 N. Broadway street. We take pride in telling you about the special on the $10 Artist Model corset. This shop is offering this garment to you for $7.50. We don't need an expert to tell us that this is a bargain. The Artist Model is made with hand-knit elastic. There are only a few left so come early.

ROSE DRESSMAKING SHOP. Room 216, Santora Building. If you received material for a new dress as a Christmas gift, our advice to you is to have it made at the Rose Dressmaking Shop where you will really be sure of style and cleverness in sewing. Sewing that is outstanding is definitely news to all of us. Your New Year's resolution should be to have your dress made at this shop.

CALIFORNIA PATIO POTTERY SHOP. 414 West Fourth street. Do you have some Christmas money left over? We can think of no wiser way to invest it than for fill ins for your pottery set. A complete line of pottery and fill ins in 6 different lines is handled at this shop. Cookie jars, water pitchers, relish dishes and many other articles make ideal completions for your set.

WHEELER SEWING MACHINE COMPANY. 120 North Sycamore street. You have heard, of course, that we are living in an age of miracles. It was truly proven to us yesterday when we saw the many feats the new Wheeler Rotary sewing machine can perform. It has an automatic tension so you don't even have to guide your cloth in sewing and it also has a self guiding feed which eliminates basting along with other modern devices.

Not a single contention made in favor of this silver policy at the time of its initiation has proved to be correct. It was argued that it would strengthen the silver standard in the countries where it already existed and encourage more countries to adopt it. Its effect was to throw China, the only important country in the world on a

PRIVATE INCOME

The failure of the silver-purchasing program to produce the results expected of it has certainly been owing to operations on too conservative a scale. The total silver holdings of the Treasury when the act went into effect were 693,000,000 ounces. It is estimated that they now approximate 800,000,000 ounces. In four and a half years, in other words, the Government has bought an amount of silver fifty times as great as our annual national production of the metal in the years preceding the program. We have spent the aggregate sum of more than $1,000,000,000—and all to justify a handful of Senators from the silver-producing States and to support the price of a commodity the value of the total annual output of which normally equals about one-twentieth of 1 per cent of our national production.

the resistance opposed to him by the tribunals named him to fury. He reviled his chancellor, kicked the shins of his judges. He did not, it is true, intend to act unjustly. He firmly believed that he was doing right, and defending the cause of poor against the wealthy. Yet this well-intentioned meddling probably did far more harm than the most unscrupulous and cruel passions during the reign of Louis XIV. It could make a shift to rule a people of his long reign. We could make a shift to rule under a debauchee or a tyrant; but to be ruled by a busy-body is more than human nature can

A political cartoon by Heeblock. In the center, a man in a dark suit and tie sits on the floor, looking down at a small, crumpled object in his hands. He is surrounded by several large, crumpled pieces of paper. One paper on the left is labeled 'STORY OF THE NAZI PROGRAMS'. Another paper in the middle is labeled 'THE NAZI IN CHINA'. A third paper on the right is labeled 'SPAIN'. A fourth paper at the bottom right is labeled 'ITALY'. On the wall to the left, a sign reads 'BETTER START WORKING OUT YOUR TAX ON THAT 1938 INCOME!'. Above the man, a portrait of a man with a large mustache and a serious expression is mounted on the wall. To the right, a portrait of a man with a large nose and a cap is mounted. In the background, a small figure of a person is visible, possibly running or jumping. The cartoon is signed 'HEEBLOCK' in the bottom right corner.

SERIAL STORY

SKI'S THE LIMIT

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

COPYRIGHT, 1938 NEA SERVICE, INC.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
SALLY BLAIR—heroine. She had everything that popularity could win her, except...
DAN REYNOLDS—hero. He might have had Sally but while he was king on the hill...
COREY PORTER—king of the social whirl. So... But go on with the story.

Yesterday Sally accepts Corey's ring in a moment of impulse, thinking she will never hear from Dan again.

CHAPTER XXI

THE first thing that Sally did, in the process of trying to forget the Sally that Dan had not wanted, was to destroy the letter that she had kept locked so long in her jewel case. She told herself that Dan was a coward, since he had run away. She told herself that the tables had turned, that she, the old Sally Blair again, did not believe in Dan Reynolds. She would forget that she ever had believed in him. She would forget she had ever known him.

She had no use for his letter now; she would never read it over again. She did not even read it when she took it out of its hiding place. She tore it into tiny fragments, deliberately, cruelly, with that dangerous brightness in her dark eyes. A brightness that was not satisfied even then. She carried the fragments to the fire burning in the grate in her lovely bedroom; she tossed the pieces into the flames. She watched them crumble around the edges, shrink up into a pitiful small heap of gray ashes.

Like my heart, Sally thought, watching them—and leaned down swiftly to gather them into the palm of her hand, to let a tear fall on them. The last tear, she resolved fiercely, that she ever would shed over Dan Reynolds. It only she could have turned her love to ashes as simply as this, tossing it back into the flames again!

SHE wore Corey's big diamond on the third finger of her left hand now. She was supposed to be engaged to him. Corey had made up her mind for her. Sally, dancing until dawn, partying, laughing, playing the part of the gay glamour girl once more did not have any mind to make up. Nor any heart. Only a dull emptiness, taking the place of the old ache, where her heart once had been.

"I hope you won't rush into this marriage," her father said. He was troubled about his daughter. He was not at all sure she was happy these days. She was too feverishly gay, too restless, too

He had hoped that if Sally must make a choice of one of the numerous young men who always had clustered around her like bees buzzing over a flower that it would be someone like young Reynolds. But he must have been mistaken in thinking that Sally had been taken with the lad. She would not have forgotten him so soon, when he went away so unexpectedly. Sam Blair had been sorry about that. But he had been convinced that the lad had had good reason; that in time he would return to offer it. He was not as convinced now that Sally, although she wore Corey Porter's ring on her slender finger, was in love with him.

"I'm not in any hurry to lose my little girl," Mr. Blair said. Especially not in any hurry to lose her to young Porter, he might have added. But he had nothing in particular against the boy, except that he was a bit wild, had had too much of the good things of this world. If Sally was sure he was the right man for her, her father would have to be satisfied, too. He did not see as much of Sally as he had for awhile, so that he did not find it easy to talk these matters over with her.

"Oh, I'm not in any hurry," Sally returned, stopping to lay a light caress on her father's forehead. That was not exactly true; she was in a hurry now. Outside Corey's horn already was honking impatiently for her to join him. Sally wanted to be in a hurry. Then there was no time to think—or to remember. "I'm not rushing into anything, Daddy."

SHE wanted to rush, to run, to dance—to live on the edge of excitement and thrills. Surely that was the best way to forget what might have been, not to think of what was going to be. The only way she knew to try to fill that aching emptiness. Oh, she was doing a very good job, as she had promised herself she would, of being the old Sally Blair again.

But not quite good enough to satisfy her father's keen, loving eyes. "Tell me one thing," he said, before he relinquished her after that light caress. "Do you love Corey, my dear? Are you sure he is the one you want? I rather hoped it might be someone else at one time." He did not need to name Dan Reynolds. Sally would know whom her father meant.

"There is no one else," Sally said. And flinched because it was so true.

Corey jumped out of his roadster to open the door for her. His blue eyes surveyed her with admiration and approval. Approval that held the pride of possession. She was so pretty, his Sally, so sweet, so gay. Her dark eyes were so bright, her cheeks so flushed.

"I have a surprise for you," he told her, as they whirled along the white road at the fast, reckless speed that carried them through all the hours they spent together. "I'm going to get a party together, all the old gang, and go up to Lake Placid for the skiing. Soon after Christmas. The snow should be just right by then. We should have a very gay time of it. What do you say, would you like that, my sweet?"

HE threw a brief side-glance at her, wanting to see how she would like his surprise. But her face was averted. He only could see the sweep of her long lashes. She did not answer for a moment, so that he thought she might not have heard him and said again, "You would like it, wouldn't you, Sally?"

Her answer came promptly this time. "Of course, I'd like it very much, Corey," Sally said.

She was glad they were traveling at such a fast speed. She was glad that Corey could not look into her eyes. That he thought she had not heard him above the roar of the motor. For then he would not be able to hear her heart's painful hammering. He could not see the pain in her dark eyes' depths.

At first, which was why she had not answered right away, Sally had wanted to cry out. No, no! She had wanted to say I don't want to go anywhere where there is skiing. I don't want to climb to the top of any mountain. For all of that would remind her too vividly, too poignantly of Dan. Dan who had been the King of Skis. Dan who belonged in that white world of the big outdoors.

But Sally said, "Of course, I'd like it very much, Corey." She did not cry out in protest. What if it did bring back this stifling nostalgia, start her heart hammering again?

It might remind her of Dan. Or it might prove that she had forgotten him. It might convince her that the things she told herself were true, that she no longer cared for Dan, that she no longer believed in him.

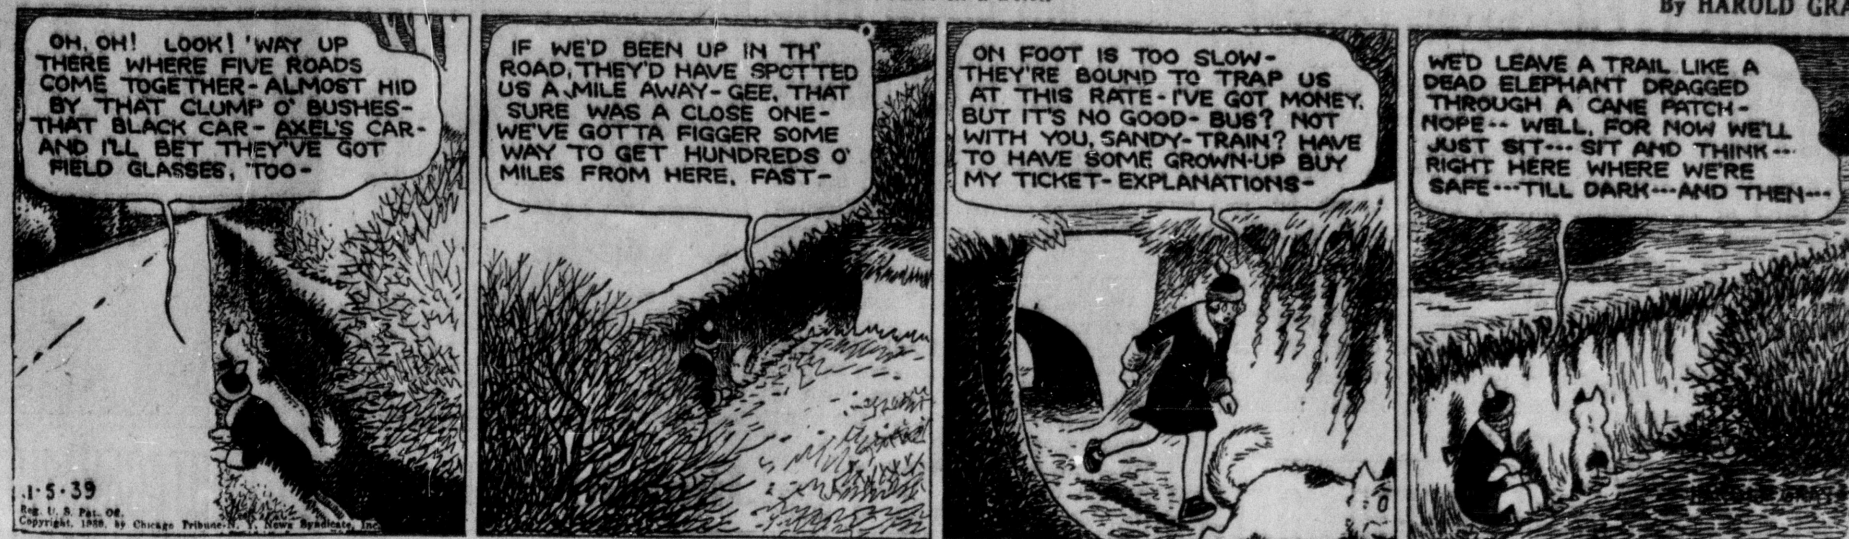

She had to be convinced of that some time. Or she could not go on pretending. She might as well take this way of facing it. Dan had left her world. She could go back to his. Perhaps then she could put him out of her heart forever, fill that emptiness.

"BRING YOUR MOTHER"

"What? No homework? Bring your mother to school. I want to see her. You take this note home at noon and don't come back until she comes with you. I've had about enough of this."

The exasperated teacher has reached the limits of patience, or of resource, so mother must come. The teacher feels outraged. Somebody else must feel inconvenienced and be made to suffer. In some way not quite clear to the teacher, this relieve her and make things come out right. After all this troublesome child does not belong to her. He does belong to his parents, and it is only right they should know what a lazy, good-for-nothing, disobedient child he is. Mother must come.

But the teacher has stopped at the door of the classroom. She has not looked beyond it to get a glimpse of how this looks to mother. Maybe there are small children at home. Maybe it is wash-day. Or perhaps one of the children is sick, or grandmother is in bed with a bad spell. Perhaps mother goes out to work.

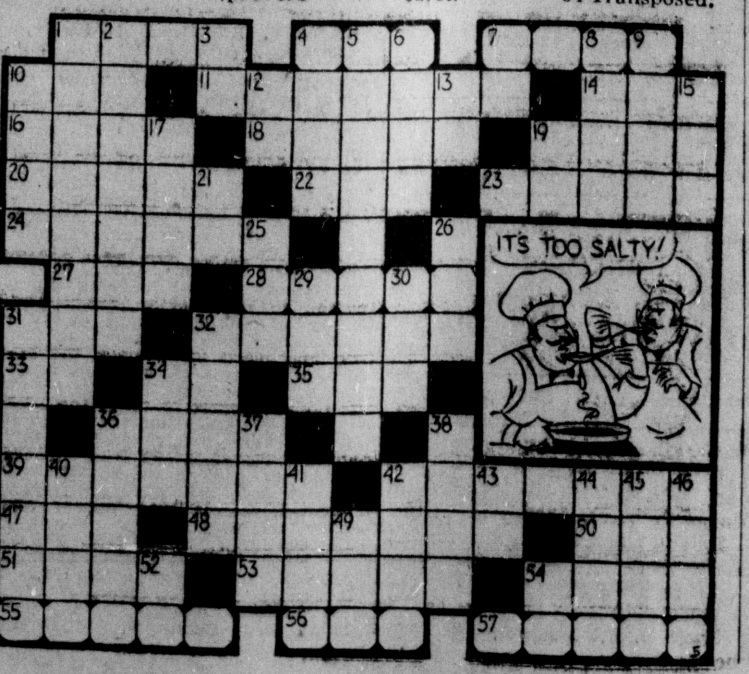

Of one thing we may be sure. Mother has her own share of suffering for the sins of her children. She knows that this boy is not doing well. She has tried to get him to do better. The teacher will have no news for her, only added grief. What can mother do with the boy in school? The teacher is in charge of him there and can do with him what his mother cannot do at a distance. All that is accomplished by this demand visit is an added weight on the mother's mind, a little more anxiety, a little more worry. She cannot learn the lessons for the child, nor make him want to do his homework. That is plainly the teacher's work.

When mother gives the child a place for work and time and encouragement she has done about all she can do to get the child to do his homework. If she sits down and does it, or pushes his hand with her will into making the marks on the paper, that homework is not doing the child

1938 Building In Laguna More Than Half Million

NEW HOMES IN YEAR ARE 119

LAGUNA BEACH, Jan. 5.—A survey of figures covering building activities in Laguna Beach during 1938, as filed in the office of Building Superintendent Floyd W. Case, show that the half million dollar mark was passed, exact figures being $566,570.

Of this figure new homes accounted for $372,775; while for business buildings, remodeling and repairs to existing structures, $188,975 was authorized by permits from Case's office.

Permits were issued for 119 dwellings of various types, with 167 permits for other work bringing the total number of certificates issued up to 286. April and May were high months, with $47,600 and $41,550 respectively. December closed the year's activities with figures of $26,100, with much more new and repair work scheduled for 1939. Never since its incorporation in 1927, have Laguna's new houses numbered less than sixty annually, with this year's 119 new homes constituting an all-time high.

Largest single building operation, in the business field, was the Laguna Shores apartments, nearing $40,000 in cost; while the biggest dwelling erected, in point of cost, was the Earl Waynick home on Cliff Drive, costing $10,000. Many new businesses have located in Laguna during the past year, including a branch of Smart-Final Co., Santa Ana; depot for the Arden Dairies, Ocean avenue, and the MacMillan Petroleum Corporation station, on land owned by Preston Foster, motion picture star, at Coast Boulevard and Oak. Enlargement of the Associated Telephone Company exchange, at Broadway and Beach, costing $14,000, reflects the growth of the city's population. Many other building projects, in both residential and business lines, will get under way during the month of January.

Revival services are to be held each night except Saturday, for the next 10 days, at 7:30 p. m. Special singing by the evangelistic group also is featured each night, in conjunction with the gospel messages of the Rev. Mr. DeWeese.

Fight Creation Of National Park

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—A day long hearing of the conservation committee of the California state chamber of commerce resulted in an announcement today that the committee would give "aggressive opposition" to the creation of a Kings river canyon national park. The committee, headed by E. W. Murphy, announced it had voted unanimously to continue opposition to the park project. It recommended that the state chamber board of directors continue previously expressed opposition.

S. A. JUNIOR BOOSTERS NAME BOARD AS AIMS ARE MAPPED

From a nominating list of 26 young Santa Ana business men, 12 directors were chosen last night in the formation of a Santa Ana Junior Chamber of Commerce as state and national officers of the organization outlined plans of procedure at a meeting at Daniger's cafe.

Directors of the organization, which will be organized on July 1, are: Herb Hill, Don Fletcher, Henry Walker, Ed Farnsworth, Lloyd Morris, Al Jasper, Roy Burns, Bud Hoyle, Ed Guard, Frank Briggs, Vic Walker and Dick Ewert.

Monday Meeting

Following the election of directors, it was announced by temporary chairman, Ed Farnsworth, that the directors would meet at the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce building at 7:30 p. m. Monday for the election of regular officers.

Herb Hill, chairman of the organization committee, announced that the charter of the organization would be held open until a formal closing date was set at the next regular meeting of the organization on January 18.

Besides those elected to the directorship, the following men will appear on the charter roll: Bill Fernandez, Bob Schilling, Frank Lewis, Stan McPherson, Mickey Walker, O. W. Hinegardner, Bob McFarren, Ted Roper, Francis Selway, Paul Beckman, Bill Young, Linus Southwick, Leonard Ward and Leonard Gorzmann.

Preceding nominations for directors, the group assembled voted to follow regulations of the state and national groups in keeping the age limit for active members and officers between 21 and 35.

T. Cedric Browne, extension chairman for Southern California, of Santa Monica, was present at the meeting and outlined a three-fold program of the state and national organization.

"The purpose of the organization," Browne said, "give young men an outlet for exercising their civic responsibility; increase the personal development of the members; and provide good fellow-

COMEDY OPENS AT BROADWAY THEATER

There's a humorous swing and hilarious flavor in the farce comedy, "There's That Woman Again," which opens at the Broadway theater today, with Melvyn Douglas and Virginia Bruce in the leading roles. With this sparkling feature on the bill which closes Saturday, is "Newsboys' Home," starring young Jackie Cooper.

In "There's That Woman Again," Gladys Lehman's clever story based on a work by Wilson Collison, Douglas portrays a private detective, and Miss Bruce is seen as the wife, who insists upon being a business as well as a domestic helpmate, stumbling over clues in her efforts to aid her husband. There is a large and well selected supporting cast.

"Newsboys' Home" is a thrilling human drama of newsboys who fight for existence in a big city and Jackie Cooper is shown as the loyal newsboy who risks his life for his publisher. Wendy Barrie and Edmund Lowe provide the romantic interest.

With the features is a colored cartoon and scenes from the U. S. C. Duke football game and from the Tournament of Roses.

Toastmasters Hold Talk Fest

Smedley Chapter Toastmasters club held its weekly dinner meeting at Daniger's last night with nearly a complete attendance of members. Guests present were Ernest Layton, and Don Mack Dalton, brother of Dr. Mark Dalton. Dalton was for some years Jack Dempsey's sparring partner and also for seven years played the position of catcher on the Earl of Clarendon's baseball team in South Africa.

Guest speakers from Orange Toastmasters were Byron Barton and Ernest Smith, with James E. Donegan of Orange club acting as general critic of the evening.

Table topic suggested by O. K. Brown, was "Would balancing the national budget increase or decrease the nation's wealth?"

Speakers for the evening were: W. N. Cummings, "The Oxford Group," Horace Ensign, "Which Shall It Be, Tad Cook, 'Tin Plate,' Byron Barton, 'Problem on Accommodations,' and Ernest Smith, 'Rose Bowl Football.' In the club vote, Ensign won first place, Smith second, and Cook, third. George DeRouillac presided as Toastmaster for the evening.

Bike Plates Set For Distribution

While the California motor vehicle department hoped today that the public would be "automobile license plate-minded," Police Chief Floyd W. Howard hoped the bicycle-owning public would be "bicycle license plate-minded" as soon as possible.

A bicycle plate for 1939 is obtainable at police headquarters on Wednesdays from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. and on Saturdays from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. The plate costs 50 cents.

"Bicycle license plates not protect the bicycle owners from thieves to a large extent but also assist the police in recovering bicycles which are stolen," the chief said. "Those who come for a bicycle license plate must not forget to bring with them the 1938 pink slip for their bicycle if their bicycle has been licensed previously." Records show 154 bicycles were stolen in 1937, 126 last year.

Local Residents To Visit Mexico

A. M. Loya, proprietor of the La Chiquita grocery store and Tortilla and Tamale factory, 902 East Washington street, with Mrs. Loya, will leave Monday by automobile for a two-months' vacation throughout Mexico, which they expect to tour. While in Mexico, they also will visit relatives.

The Loyas plan to visit Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Morelia, Guadalajara and other cities in the southern part of Mexico during the first part of their trip and the northern area on their return trip. Mrs. Loya's sister, Miss Josephine Maras, will be in charge of the grocery and factory during the Loyas' vacation.

May Cancel Farm Assn. Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(UP)—The Senate civil liberties committee today indicated it may cancel hearings on its study of the Associated Farmers organization in California because of insufficient funds.

When Chairman Robert M. La Follette Jr., Prog. Wis., received funds from the Senate last session, he said the committee would use the money to prepare a report of its investigations. La Follette, it was indicated, believes the committee is obligated to make its report by Jan. 15 unless the Senate grants more time and additional funds.

It was reported that several Senate liberals have started a movement to obtain funds to permit the committee to carry its work through the present stages. But committee members indicated that unless the new funds are made available, the California hearings, scheduled for Jan. 16, may be cancelled.

Store Disturbed As Fumes Spread

The F. W. Woolworth company store was forced to suspend business for an hour yesterday afternoon, when fumes from the fountain refrigerating system forced clerks and customers to leave the premises. W. S. Macfarlane, store manager, reported today that the fumes came from a loose joint, a refrigerating expert repairing the leak in a short time.

CHURCH SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 5.—Plans for the annual birthday dinner of the Dorcas Society of the Methodist church on Feb. 7 at Memorial church were made at the New Year's luncheon-meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harold H. Swift at 810 Main street, Wednesday.

Beautifully decorated tables will be arranged for every month of the year and for the four seasons by a group of hostesses for the festive occasion. General chairmen for the dinner are Mrs. Swift, kitchen; Mrs. Charles S. Puckett, dining room and Mrs. Owen A. Mosier, tickets.

Mrs. Puckett presided at the meeting for the president, Mrs. Homer Dowty who was called to Kansas City to the bedside of her mother. Mrs. Robert L. Strickland and Mrs. Swift were duo hostesses at the luncheon.

Among others attending were Mmes. Harry Sallade, Roy R. Watts, Pearl Jones, Benjamin Stewart, George Carroll, Byrl Harper, Charles Burleycamp, Pearl Ross, Augusta Kulb, Mary Jane Tharpe, Charles Donahue, Thing, Rev. and Mrs. Forest Woodside, and Miss Zeima Brown.

May Expand Weather Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—A 25 per cent increase in appropriations for the government's weather service, recommended by President Roosevelt in his budget message, would result in general expansion of marine meteorological work on the Pacific coast and improvement of weather forecasting. Maj. Edward H. Bowie, chief forecaster for the U. S. weather bureau, said today.

"With proper funds," Maj. Bowie said, "we will be able to improve the ocean weather service materially. This would mean more funds for radio tolls, increase of observations from ships at sea from twice to four times daily and money to pay radio operators for weather observations furnished outside their regular watches."

Maj. Bowie said increased funds, if approved by Congress, would permit the bureau to assist Pan American Airways in strengthening its trans-Pacific weather reports.

Issue Warrant In Murder Case

MADERA, Cal., Jan. 5.—(UP)—District Attorney George Mordecai today issued a murder complaint against Sidlee Gaunt, 21, in connection with the fatal stabbing of James B. Shaw, 31, during a New Year's eve fight here. Shaw was the third member of his immediate family to die at the hands of a slayer, Mordecai revealed. The victim's mother and brother were killed during a family quarrel 10 years ago. Mordecai said W. M. Brown, Shaw's stepfather, was serving a life sentence for the killing.

RAP CANDIDACY LAW

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—The Federation of Democratic Women's Study clubs, in a series of resolutions made public today, deplored the "legislative authority" which permits candidates to file on more than one party ticket and urged legislation to "correct this practice."

Headline Gives Wrong Impression

The wrong headline was inadvertently placed on a story from Garden Grove and published in the Register recently. The story told of members of the King's Daughters Sunday school class of the Garden Grove Baptist church being entertained at an after Christmas party by Mrs. Elsie Oertly at the home of her daughter-in-law. The headline, which belonged on another story, indicated that members of a card club had been entertained.

Four Killed In Tenement Blaze

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Fire swept through a five story "old law" tenement today, killing at least four persons and driving 200 others into the street.

The fire started at about 4 a. m., apparently in a restaurant on the ground floor, and spread through the building by way of a wooden stairway.

Tenants, most of them clad in nightclothes, rushed outdoors where they stood shivering in chill morning air.

Two cripples were rescued by firemen after they appeared at windows and called for help.

Following the special meeting, a meeting of the board of directors will be held at 4 p. m., Dr. Wehrly said.
